

FULL TRAIN SERVICE TO BE RESUMED THURSDAY

Villistas Hold 2 Americans for Ransom

ALLIES OFFER TO ACCEPT TREATY RESERVATIONS

CONFERENCE OF PREMIERS IN LONDON LEADS TO AGREEMENT.

WILSON NOTIFIED

U. S. Wanted as Party to Enforcement of Peace Terms.

(By Associated Press.)

London, Dec. 13.—John W. Davis, the American ambassador, late this afternoon telephoned Downing street, where premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau and their advisors were in conference. It was reported that Ambassador Davis' presence was connected with proposals submitted from the conference to President Wilson yesterday which were said to make the peace treaty acceptable to general public opinion in the United States.

Viscount Chinda, the Japanese ambassador, was also called into the conference just before its conclusion. Another late afternoon visitor to the conference was the Marquis Imperiali, the Italian ambassador.

Allies Accept Reservations.

Paris, Dec. 13.—As a result of the conferences being held at London by Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau, the American government will be notified to accept the treaty to facilitate a compromise between adverse parties in the American senate, the allies are willing to accept to as great an extent as possible, some of the reservations to the Versailles treaty made by the foreign relations committee, according to the press.

It is said the allies will do everything in their power to make every thing in London that America may participate in future conferences.

Important problems, the newspaper says, will henceforth be settled by a council of the premiers of France, England, and Italy.

In the presence of John W. Davis, United States ambassador to Great Britain, it is said, Premiers Clemenceau and Lloyd George assured Vittorio Scialo, Italian foreign minister, that there was a necessity for an early settlement of the Flume problem, and indicated England would intercede with the United States for Italy.

Republicans Are Satisfied.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Republicans of both "regular" and "mild" reservation groups in the senate, pressed privately for satisfaction over the report made from Paris. Some of them predicted that the reservations, with possible amendment of the preamble, would be adopted, but not before January.

Frequent conferences between entente diplomats here have indicated their governments might be prepared to accept some reservations to the peace treaty to accomplish its ratification in the senate, and it is understood that only the illness of President Wilson has prevented him from being so advised.

It has not been made known here to what extent entente powers might be prepared to go, but it does appear that there would be final objection to the preamble as proposed by the senate foreign relations committee, by which other powers would be required to officially record their acceptance of reservations as part of the treaty in substance.

Editors Protest Church Campaign Plan in Cuba.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Republicans of both "regular" and "mild" reservation groups in the senate, pressed privately for satisfaction over the report made from Paris. Some of them predicted that the reservations, with possible amendment of the preamble, would be adopted, but not before January.

Irish Republic Bill ATTACKED IN HOUSE

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 13.—The Irish question today was before the house committee on foreign affairs. Mr. L. Fox, New Haven, resumed his attack before the committee on the Mason bill providing for recognition of the Irish republic. Mr. Cochran, New York, was to make the defense of the bill, and the committee, including address in support of the measure.

Mr. Fox declared the reason Irish republic leaders had been imprisoned was that they had "given aid and comfort to the enemy in the war." And if men in this country had done the same thing, "he added, "they would have got it in the neck as quickly as those Irishmen did."

Mr. Fox attacked the statement that upwards of 20,000,000 Americans of Irish blood were aiding and abetting the republic, declaring that the 1910 census showed only 600,000 males in the United States who were born in Ireland.

He said that at least some Roman Catholics had an "utter contempt for Sinn Fein," basing their political movement on the fact that they were born in Ireland.

United States diplomats, in considering the steamer Maryland, Wednesday, arrived here early today with many American aboard. She appeared to be leaking. The steamer Carona, which has stood by since Thursday accompanied her.

United States ships Galveston and Lake Elsinore were ashore at Port Hood Island and Blue Cape, respectively, and the American schooners, Ronald Moulton and T. M. Nicholson, were beached in Humber Arm, Newfoundland. The steamer E. B. Kingsley, bound from Montreal to Halifax, went ashore yesterday at the entrance to White Head harbor.

Zero TEMPERATURES TO PREVAIL TONIGHT

Chicago, Dec. 13.—Zero temperatures will prevail in the midwest territory again tonight, the weather bureau announced. The weather was expected to be cold Monday.

In the Pacific northwest all records of the weather bureau have been broken.

Sheridan, Wyoming, reported 26 below zero, and Helena, Montana, 24.

INFANTRY ARRIVES TO TAKE Charge of Strike Situation

International Falls, Minn., Dec. 13.—Adm. Gen. W. F. Robinson and company M. Fifth Minnesota Infantry arrived here this morning, to take charge in the strike situation here.

Students Want to be with Parents on Fatal Day, Dec. 17

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 13.—President Wilson, who has permitted him to be with his son, the adjutant general, for a short time each day, Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his physician, announced today. The president, the doctor said, dresses himself and with the aid of a cane walks unattended.

S. O. S. Call from British Steamer Picked up in N. Y.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, N. Y., Dec. 13.—The British steamer Mississippi today sent out a S. O. S. call which was picked up here. The steamer Mapleleaf answered, saying she would reach her in 20 hours. The position is approximately 430 miles off the Newfoundland coast.

Cold, Generally Fair, are Predictions for Next Week

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 13.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Monday, issued by the weather bureau, are:

Upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys—cold and generally fair.

Region of the Great Lakes—cold and generally fair, but with local snows near the lakes.

Rebels Keep Men in Lieu Of $10,000

(By Associated Press.)

Eagle Pass, Texas, Dec. 13.—Two Americans and an Englishman are reported missing in the mountains of Chihuahua in the state of Coahuila, and who are now held for ransom.

Advice received here today said eight Mexicans are now held for ransom. Ten thousand dollars each, it was reported, was demanded for release of the Americans and the Englishman and five thousand dollars each for the Mexicans.

The Americans reported held by the Indians are R. B. Ransom, representing the Eagle Pass Lumber company, and Fred G. Hugo, manager of the J. M. Dobies ranch. One unconfirmed report said the Englishman whose name was not given had been released.

PRESENT POLITICAL ALIGNMENT IS NOT DISTURBED BY LABOR

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 13.—No effort to disturb the present political party alignment for the election will be made by the conference of international union presidents and railroad brotherhood heads, delegates said today as the first session of the conference opened at American Federation of Labor headquarters.

Preliminary speeches at the conference were said to have indicated that political redress demanded by organized labor would be sought through the election of members of the two major parties who would be favorably disposed toward union legislation.

The few supporters of the new labor party present admitted that they expected to be "thoroughly whipped" by the conservative elements in the reorganization of the American Federation of Labor.

No representatives of former organizations were present. Leaders, however, still had hope that some would attend the conference which may last through next Saturday.

The few supporters of the new labor party present admitted that they expected to be "thoroughly whipped" by the conservative elements in the reorganization of the American Federation of Labor.

In the presence of John W. Davis, United States ambassador to Great Britain, it is said, Premiers Clemenceau and Lloyd George assured Vittorio Scialo, Italian foreign minister, that there was a necessity for an early settlement of the Flume problem, and indicated England would intercede with the United States for Italy.

Republicans Are Satisfied.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Republicans of both "regular" and "mild" reservation groups in the senate, pressed privately for satisfaction over the report made from Paris. Some of them predicted that the reservations, with possible amendment of the preamble, would be adopted, but not before January.

Irish Republic Bill ATTACKED IN HOUSE

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 13.—The Irish question today was before the house committee on foreign affairs. Mr. L. Fox, New Haven, resumed his attack before the committee on the Mason bill providing for recognition of the Irish republic. Mr. Cochran, New York, was to make the defense of the bill, and the committee, including address in support of the measure.

Mr. Fox declared the reason Irish republic leaders had been imprisoned was that they had "given aid and comfort to the enemy in the war." And if men in this country had done the same thing, "he added, "they would have got it in the neck as quickly as those Irishmen did."

Mr. Fox attacked the statement that upwards of 20,000,000 Americans of Irish blood were aiding and abetting the republic, declaring that the 1910 census showed only 600,000 males in the United States who were born in Ireland.

United States diplomats, in considering the steamer Maryland, Wednesday, arrived here early today with many American aboard. She appeared to be leaking. The steamer Carona, which has stood by since Thursday accompanied her.

United States ships Galveston and Lake Elsinore were ashore at Port Hood Island and Blue Cape, respectively, and the American schooners, Ronald Moulton and T. M. Nicholson, were beached in Humber Arm, Newfoundland. The steamer E. B. Kingsley, bound from Montreal to Halifax, went ashore yesterday at the entrance to White Head harbor.

Zero TEMPERATURES TO PREVAIL TONIGHT

Chicago, Dec. 13.—Zero temperatures will prevail in the midwest territory again tonight, the weather bureau announced. The weather was expected to be cold Monday.

In the Pacific northwest all records of the weather bureau have been broken.

Sheridan, Wyoming, reported 26 below zero, and Helena, Montana, 24.

INFANTRY ARRIVES TO TAKE Charge of Strike Situation

International Falls, Minn., Dec. 13.—Adm. Gen. W. F. Robinson and company M. Fifth Minnesota Infantry arrived here this morning, to take charge in the strike situation here.

Students Want to be with Parents on Fatal Day, Dec. 17

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 13.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Monday, issued by the weather bureau, are:

Upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys—cold and generally fair.

Region of the Great Lakes—cold and generally fair, but with local snows near the lakes.

Billy Dansey and Dog Jack

(By Associated Press.)

Eagle Pass, Texas, Dec. 13.—According to recent dispatches officials running down the slayer of Billy Dansey, "perfect child" of Hammonton, N. J., believe the boy may have been slain accidentally by someone attempting to kill the dog which accompanied Billy, at all times. Billy and the dog were going through the dahlia gardens owned by Charles A. White, a neighbor, when last seen alive. White told officials this soon after Billy disappeared, Oct. 8. White recently was arrested in connection with the boy's death. Hammonton folk talk of threats said to have been made by White to "get" Jack if he continued to dig up plants in the dahlia fields. Neighbors believe that, if White is implicated in the case in the beginning was one of accident and then one of fright.

The few supporters of the new labor party present admitted that they expected to be "thoroughly whipped" by the conservative elements in the reorganization of the American Federation of Labor.

No representatives of former organizations were present. Leaders, however, still had hope that some would attend the conference which may last through next Saturday.

The few supporters of the new labor party present admitted that they expected to be "thoroughly whipped" by the conservative elements in the reorganization of the American Federation of Labor.

In the presence of John W. Davis, United States ambassador to Great Britain, it is said, Premiers Clemenceau and Lloyd George assured Vittorio Scialo, Italian foreign minister, that there was a necessity for an early settlement of the Flume problem, and indicated England would intercede with the United States for Italy.

Republicans Are Satisfied.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Republicans of both "regular" and "mild" reservation groups in the senate, pressed privately for satisfaction over the report made from Paris. Some of them predicted that the reservations, with possible amendment of the preamble, would be adopted, but not before January.

Irish Republic Bill ATTACKED IN HOUSE

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 13.—The Irish question today was before the house committee on foreign affairs. Mr. L. Fox, New Haven, resumed his attack before the committee on the Mason bill providing for recognition of the Irish republic. Mr. Cochran, New York, was to make the defense of the bill, and the committee, including address in support of the measure.

Mr. Fox declared the reason Irish republic leaders had been imprisoned was that they had "given aid and comfort to the enemy in the war." And if men in this country had done the same thing, "he added, "they would have got it in the neck as quickly as those Irishmen did."

Mr. Fox attacked the statement that upwards of 20,000,000 Americans of Irish blood were aiding and abetting the republic, declaring that the 1910 census showed only 600,000 males in the United States who were born in Ireland.

United States diplomats, in considering the steamer Maryland, Wednesday, arrived here early today with many American aboard. She appeared to be leaking. The steamer Carona, which has stood by since Thursday accompanied her.

United States ships Galveston and Lake Elsinore were ashore at Port Hood Island and Blue Cape, respectively, and the American schooners, Ronald Moulton and T. M. Nicholson, were beached in Humber Arm, Newfoundland. The steamer E. B. Kingsley, bound from Montreal to Halifax, went ashore yesterday at the entrance to White Head harbor.

Zero TEMPERATURES TO PREVAIL TONIGHT

Chicago, Dec. 13.—Zero temperatures will prevail in the midwest territory again tonight, the weather bureau announced. The weather was expected to be cold Monday.

In the Pacific northwest all records of the weather bureau have been broken.

Sheridan, Wyoming, reported 26 below zero, and Helena, Montana, 24.

INFANTRY ARRIVES TO TAKE Charge of Strike Situation

International Falls, Minn., Dec. 13.—Adm. Gen. W. F. Robinson and company M. Fifth Minnesota Infantry arrived here this morning, to take charge in the strike situation here.

Students Want to be with Parents on Fatal Day, Dec. 17

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 13.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Monday, issued by the weather bureau, are:

Upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys—cold and generally fair.

Region of the Great Lakes—cold and generally fair, but with local snows near the lakes.

Cold, Generally Fair, are Predictions for Next Week

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 13.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Monday, issued by the weather bureau, are:

Upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys—cold and generally fair.

Region of the Great Lakes—cold and generally fair, but with local snows near the lakes.

Cold, Generally Fair, are Predictions for Next Week

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 13.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Monday, issued by the weather bureau, are:

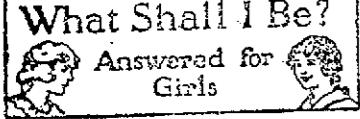

Upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys—cold and generally fair.

Region of the Great Lakes—cold and generally fair, but with local snows near the lakes.

Cold, Generally Fair, are Predictions for Next Week

(By Associated Press.)

NEWS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

High School Notes

What Shall I Be?
Answered for Girls

The Actress
By Elizabeth Muirhead
"You bet I'm going to be an actress. I'm not even going to finish school," remarked a seventh grader who was rehearsing a dramatization for English class.

Both boys and girls are making similar resolutions this holiday season when the theaters are packed to standing room. And none of us can blame the "stage struck" girl. We all like to pretend and the desire to be somebody else is not confined to our teens.

In spite of the huge number of "matinee dolls" and "movie fans," there is perhaps less known about acting than any other art. Few people realize that there are definite rules to be followed here just as in music and that just as much practice is required of those who achieve success.

The girl who follows Maude Adams through an afternoon of youthful merriment or sits in the theater with Marlowe's "you leaves a sigh of genuine envy of the "heaven born gift." Little does she realize that years of untiring practice have given Marlowe's voice its richness or that only by extreme care and solicitude can a minute Adams come to have lively lines.

To secure all great actresses must have "the gift," but how many there are who flourish only a few seasons because they depend upon talents alone to maintain their fame. It is talent plus training of the most rigorous kind that makes the successful actress.

There are schools which train young girls in voice, gesture, and expression, such as the American Academy of Dramatic Art in New York City, the Boston School, and the Leland Powers Schools in Boston. But there is nothing like a genuine apprenticeship in a theater. A girl must be willing to start in at a mere living wage in the most insignificant roles in order to learn the tricks of the trade.

She must be prepared to make sacrifices both of friends and good times, for art demands complete self-devotion. The stage means the hardest kind of work, but these girls are really "arrived" to those who are filled with the dramatic instinct and are capable of level-headed, pains-taking work; the door is wide open.

(Next week: "The Saleswoman.")

Rural School News

Friday evening there will be a box social at district 4, Janesville. This is the first school beyond the cemetery on the Evansville road. Sleighs will leave the city at 7 o'clock.

I. P. Hinkley, Milton Junction, was a visitor at the county superintendent's office, Friday.

Mrs. Ellen Rota Dunbar, Fortville, and Miss Redella Peich, Center, were visitors at Supt. Antisdel's office today.

Three more schools have reported 100 percent in the junior Red Cross society. Avalon through the treasurer, Marshall Voltz, has turned in $6.75 to Supt. Antisdel's office. In the meantime, the office of the Austin, Harmony, district, $7.50 was raised for the Red Cross.

The school taught by Miss Redella Peich, district 1, Center, has membership to the amount of $4.50.

COOPERATIVE STORE TO OPEN JAN. 1 IN JONES' GROCERY

Janesville's cooperative store will open for business on about Jan. 1, at 3 N. Jackson Street. The building now occupied by B. J. Jones' grocery. The goods of the store will be new and complete throughout according to a statement made this morning by C. A. Bellow, who has been instrumental in the formation of the "Laborers' Cooperative Society" in this city.

Goods will be sold at prevailing prices and it is the plan of the organization that patrons purchasing goods will be given a cash rebate on the amount of goods purchased. An equal amount of the cooperative store will share in its profits on the basis of the amount of goods purchased by each individual.

Farmers Urged to Buy Alfalfa Seed at Once

Because of the shortage of alfalfa seed, farmers are warned to buy County Agent R. T. Glassco to buy the most necessary supply immediately. He has received a warning from seedmen that the amount available is far below normal.

The agent is ready to receive orders from farmers which he will place for them. He has secured an option of 100 pounds of seed and can get 1,000 if he receives requests for that amount.

Art League to Prepare Decorations for Play

Decorations for the Christmas play "Egerhart" will be done by the Art League. The following committee named by Mrs. Charles Sarnborn will have charge of the work: Mrs. J. C. Bridges, Mrs. Harold Jones, Mrs. Harry Jones, Mrs. H. H. Pease, and Mrs. H. K. Morrison.

Rehearsal of "Egerhart" will be held Monday evening. Miss Corneelia Cooper and Prof. Edgar Gordon will attend this rehearsal.

You'll like it Tuesday—Armory Blue Mound County Club Orchestra.

C. of C. Finds Employment For 15 Men in Past 4 Days

Fifteen men were given employment through the aid of the Chamber of Commerce during the past four days. Six men were furnished with outside construction work, two men each with work as mechanics, carpenters, and two men each for stenographers and typists.

Job applications for work than positions are listed with the division. All employers who are now in need of help or will be in need of help, are asked to notify the chamber so that a record of positions may be kept on file.

John Fathers, G. A. De Vieg, and Victor Hemming had charge of arrangements for the dance.

The new plan of placing the dance tickets on sale in the various departments of the plant has proved most satisfactory in that the crowds is much smaller and suitable to the size of the hall. This plan also serves to make the parties strictly for Samson employees.

John Fathers, G. A. De Vieg, and Victor Hemming had charge of arrangements for the dance.

Many of these homes have been sold, but there are a number of choice ones left.

You can arrange for time payments if you wish.

C. P. BEERS

Agent

Ground Floor Hayes Block

Both Phones

When you think of insurance think of C. P. Beers.

COUNCIL WILL VOTE ON NEW CITY PLAN ORDINANCE MONDAY

Passage of a new ordinance calling for the formation of city plan committee of three members is expected to be made by the council at its regular semi-monthly meeting at the city hall Monday night at 8 o'clock. The ordinance was given its first and second readings after being introduced two weeks ago. It is anticipated to be voted on after the third reading Monday evening.

The ordinance provides that the mayor and city engineer shall be constant members of the committee, and one member from the council and one citizen, the body to have supervision over and power to investigate plans for city beautification.

The four citizen members would be appointed by the mayor, while the council's representative would be selected by the committee.

The proposal to change the name of York street in the Second ward to Irving place is also slated for a vote while Ald. E. F. Kelly is expected to present terms for a contract to be made by the city with Mercy hospital.

A salary for W. B. Sullivan during his term as city fuel administrator will doubtless be voted. Mr. Sullivan was named to that office more than a week ago, with the understanding that the council could vote him a salary at its next meeting.

Hoover state's youngest jazz accordionist Tuesday, Armory, Jackie's jazz dance.

Fireless Cook Stoves and Phonographs All made in Janesville. On display at factory show rooms. Orders now being booked for Christmas delivery by Stafford-Caloric Company.

They sing, dance and entertain you Tuesday, Armory, Jackie's dance.

Business Property

Forty-four feet (44) on Milwaukee Avenue, with a Three story Building, Seventy-five Thousand dollars ($75,000.00).

Forty-four feet (44) on Milwaukee Avenue, with a Two story Building, Thirty-five Thousand dollars ($55,000.00).

One hundred and thirty-two feet (132 ft.) on Franklin Street, partially income property. Eighty thousand dollars ($80,000.00).

These prices are very conservative values, and will surely double in price in the next five years.

The report by schools of those not vaccinated: Washington 90, Armstrong 30, Jefferson 33, Garfield 23, Webster 60, Douglas 74, Grant 45, Jackson 26, Lincoln 10, and high school 67.

The report by schools of those not vaccinated: Washington 90, Armstrong 30, Jefferson 33, Garfield 23, Webster 60, Douglas 74, Grant 45, Jackson 26, Lincoln 10, and high school 67.

Buy your Phonograph at the Stafford-Caloric Factory. Large line on display at factory show rooms.

Lakotas to Practice Tomorrow Afternoon

Lakotas will meet at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for their second rehearsal for the minstrel show to be given Feb. 10-11. Dr. S. F. Richards, who is chairman of the general committee, is urgent in his request that every member be on duty. Art P. Brown, manager, will be on hand to direct the rehearsal.

The semi-monthly meeting of the club will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock. President George Sherman announces.

PRAYER BOOKS, Rosary Beads, Crucifixes and other religious articles for Christmas gifts for sale at St. Joseph's Convent. Prices very reasonable.

Everything Musical Always. The Music Shop. E. Milwaukee St.

Buy your Phonograph at the Stafford-Caloric Factory. Large line on display at factory show rooms.

TROY LAUNDRY

14-16 S. Jackson St.

Smith's CHRISTMAS CIGAR LIST

$28.50 Will buy one Domestic Phonograph with 10 Columbia Records

300 Needles

$33.50 Will buy one Domestic Phonograph with 10 Columbia Records

300 Needles

$48.20 Will buy one Edison Amherol Phonograph with 12 New 4-Minute Records

Diamond Needle

$75.20 Will buy one Edison Amherol Phonograph with 12 New American Records

Diamond Needle

$108.50 Will buy one Vitanola Golden Oak Cabinet Phonograph with 10 Columbia Records, 20 selections, 300 Needles

This is a splendid outfit.

$123.50 Will buy one beautiful Burl Walnut Dulcetone Cabinet Phonograph with 10 extra quality Okeh Records, 20 selections

La Marca, box of 50. $4.00

AND MANY OTHERS

See Our Fine Line of Pipes for Christmas. From 35c to $8.00

Smith's Pharmacy

THE REXALL STORE

Kodaks & Kodak Supplies

14 West Milwaukee St.

Mail orders filled promptly.

Four Cases Left on July Calendar

Two Hurt in Falls on Icy Sidewalks

Breeders to Plan New Sales Pavilion

112 Millions used last year to KILL COLDS

HILL'S CASCARA-BROMIDE

Standard cold remedy for 30 years in tablet form—safe, sure, and opiates—breaks up a cold in 24 hours.

Money back if it fails. The genuine box with Mr. Hill's picture.

At All Drug Stores

FOUR CASES LEFT ON JULY CALENDAR

Following a verdict by the jury for $204.50 and costs in favor of Michael Friedel, a tobacco grower, the Rockford and others, for failure to live up to a sales contract and the settling of several cases out of court, the circuit court has been suspended by Judge Grimm until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This leaves four cases upon the jury.

During the past week at least two citizens have suffered serious injuries through falls resulting from slippery sidewalks.

Mr. W. H. Great, 603 Chen street, received a broken arm when she slipped and fell on a Racine street sidewalk, while Andrew Scott, 321 Clark st., suffered injuries in a similar manner.

Mr. McKune points out that property owners are responsible for having their walks cleaned of snow and ice. Wherever it is impossible to remove it, he says, and should be cleaned. In case of snowdrifts followed by freezing weather, city forces are always employed to clear walks throughout the city. Present conditions are not held to warrant such an expense.

TWO HURT IN FALLS ON ICY SIDEWALKS

To consider the building of a sales pavilion at the high grounds and to plan ways and means of obtaining the necessary funds, a meeting of all breeders and others interested in the Rock County Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Association and voted upon favorably.

This matter was taken up at a recent meeting of the Rock County Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Association and voted upon favorably.

Property owners throughout the city were asked today by Street Commissioner Thomas McKune to assist in the preservation of human life and limb by covering all dangerous icy strips on sidewalks with sand or ashes. During the past week at least two citizens have suffered serious injuries through falls resulting from slippery sidewalks.

This matter was taken up at a recent meeting of the Rock County Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Association and voted upon favorably.

Property owners throughout the city were asked today by Street Commissioner Thomas McKune to assist in the preservation of human life and limb by covering all dangerous icy strips on sidewalks with sand or ashes. During the past week at least two citizens have suffered serious injuries through falls resulting from slippery sidewalks.

This matter was taken up at a recent meeting of the Rock County Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Association and voted upon favorably.

Property owners throughout the city were asked today by Street Commissioner Thomas McKune to assist in the preservation of human life and limb by covering all dangerous icy strips on sidewalks with sand or ashes. During the past week at least two citizens have suffered serious injuries through falls resulting from slippery sidewalks.

This matter was taken up at a recent meeting of the Rock County Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Association and voted upon favorably.

Property owners throughout the city were asked today by Street Commissioner Thomas McKune to assist in the preservation of human life and limb by covering all dangerous icy strips on sidewalks with sand or ashes. During the past week at least two citizens have suffered serious injuries through falls resulting from slippery sidewalks.

This matter was taken up at a recent meeting of the Rock County Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Association and voted upon favorably.

Property owners throughout the city were asked today by Street Commissioner Thomas McKune to assist in the preservation of human life and limb by covering all dangerous icy strips on sidewalks with sand or ashes. During the past week at least two citizens have suffered serious injuries through falls resulting from slippery sidewalks.

This matter was taken up at a recent meeting of the Rock County Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Association and voted upon favorably.

Property owners throughout the city were asked today by Street Commissioner Thomas McKune to assist in the preservation of human life and limb by covering all dangerous icy strips on sidewalks with sand or ashes. During the past week at least two citizens have suffered serious injuries through falls resulting from slippery sidewalks.

This matter was taken up at a recent meeting of the Rock County Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Association and voted upon favorably.

Property owners throughout the city were asked today by Street Commissioner Thomas McKune to assist in the preservation of human life and limb by covering all dangerous icy strips on sidewalks with sand or ashes. During the past week at least two citizens have suffered serious injuries through falls resulting from slippery sidewalks.

This matter was taken up at a recent meeting of the Rock County Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Association and voted upon favorably.

Property owners throughout the city were asked today by Street Commissioner Thomas McKune to assist in the preservation of human life and limb by covering all dangerous icy strips on sidewalks with sand or ashes. During the past week at least two citizens have suffered serious injuries through falls resulting from slippery sidewalks.

This matter was taken up at a recent meeting of the Rock County Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Association and voted upon favorably.

Property owners throughout the city were asked today by Street Commissioner Thomas McKune to assist in the preservation of human life and limb by covering all dangerous icy strips on sidewalks with sand or ashes. During the past week at least two citizens have suffered serious injuries through falls resulting from slippery sidewalks.

This matter was taken up at a recent meeting of the Rock County Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Association and voted upon favorably.

Property owners throughout the city were asked today by Street Commissioner Thomas McKune to assist in the preservation of human life and limb by covering all dangerous icy strips on sidewalks with sand or ashes. During the past week at least two citizens have suffered serious injuries through falls resulting from slippery sidewalks.

NEWS ABOUT FOLKS

CLUBS
SOCIETY
PERSONALS

SOCIAL EVENTS

Announcements of the marriage of Mrs. Marguerite Holzschlag, Green Bay, and Armand W. Wohrle, Green Bay, were received by relatives in this city. The nuptial vows were read at the home of the bride's mother in Green Bay on Thanksgiving day, in which city the contracting parties will make their future home.

The marriage of Miss Lucile Dorothy Corbet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Corbet, 5633 Blackstone avenue, Chicago, and Russell Clemens Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Parker, Court street, this city, was held last evening at the Hotel Carlton, Chicago. It was an informal affair, followed by a reception and dance. Mr. and Mrs. George Parker, Kenneth Parker and Miss Virginia Parker and Bruce Jenkins, who were present, attended from this city. Mr. and Mrs. Parker will reside in Janesville. They will be at home to their friends after Jan. 1 at 28 Sinclair street.

The marriage of Miss Jennette Myer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Myer, Independence, Iowa, took place Nov. 29, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. L. Keller, Council Bluffs, Iowa. The groom is a teacher in the consolidated school at Straham, Iowa. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Myer, 522 W. Washington street, this city. He was graduate of the local high school in 1914. He was in the U. S. service 16 months and was in France and Germany. The bride was a popular young business woman of Independence. Mr. and Mrs. Myer will make their home in Straham, Iowa.

About one hundred young people forgot the dignity of their high school experiences and played the games of childhood days with fervor at the Methodist church social held at the Methodist church last evening. Guests from the lodges at Fort Atkinson, Milton and Milton Junction were present and joined in the festivities. Lunches were served by the unique method of being packed in boxes. Also light refreshments were served from the kitchen. Miss Eli Jacobs was in charge of the affair.

Miss Esther A. Demirov and Euclid I. Rich were united in marriage yesterday, at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church. Rev. Dr. Morse and the marriage service. Mr. and Mrs. Rich will make their home with the mother of the groom, Mrs. J. Stern, Court street.

The Philanthropic club met today at the home of Mrs. C. V. Koch, 120 Jefferson avenue. A program was given, after which Mrs. Koch served a tea.

Keith Beecher presents the Woodland Club on Saturday evening at the Apollo hall. The program just concluded an engagement at Friar's Inn, Chicago, and is on a tour through Wisconsin. Many people in the city were acquainted with the orchestra during the summer season at the lake.

Mrs. E. H. Danrow, Glen street, was hostess Thursday afternoon to a Neighbor's sewing club. The women took their sewing and spent the afternoon during which Mrs. Danrow served tea.

Mrs. William Talman, 265 Madison street, entertained 12 guests Friday at a one o'clock luncheon. In the afternoon bridge was played. The prize was won by Mrs. Louis Amerson.

Mrs. Mary Yonce, 630 South Third street, invited the members of a club to be her guests Friday afternoon. At one o'clock a luncheon was served. Bridge was played in the afternoon.

The T. N. T. club composed of 10 girls met last evening at the home of Miss Marion King, St. Laurence avenue. The girls took their work. Dancing was also enjoyed. A lunch was served.

A surprise party was given Friday evening at the home of Miss Clara Scarfone, 164 South Franklin street, in her honor, by 20 young women, who are her fellow employees at the Parker-Corbet company.

The bride was Miss L. Ruder, the groom, Mrs. R. E. Rogers, and the minister, Mrs. W. Owen. After the ceremony games and music were enjoyed. A buffet lunch was served at 10 o'clock. Miss Ruder was presented with a ten-kettle. She will be one of the December brides.

PERSONALS

F. L. Page of the P. H. Quinn lumber company was called to Minneapolis by the death of his mother last evening.

Frank Crum, Milton, is a business visitor in this city today.

Miss Ruth Bloedel, 1011 Olive street, is home from a Chicago visit where she has been spending the winter with friends.

George Agy, who is connected with the St. Paul railroad, is spending a couple of days in Janesville.

P. Lindemer, Prairie du Chien, is a Janesville business visitor for a few days.

W. Cushing, Madison, is the guest of Janesville friends this week.

Miss Ida Mae Wright, 121 Madison street, who underwent an operation at the Madison hospital is rapidly recovering and was able to return home this week.

Mrs. William Wood, Stoughton, is visiting at the home of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pierpont Wood, St. Lawrence avenue.

Wilbur Ryan, Park avenue, is home from a Chicago visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schliem, Milwaukee, are home from the Evansville visit.

Miss Effie C. Jones, 214 Oakland avenue, who has been visiting friends in Cleveland, Ohio, for a few days home.

Miss Ruth Granger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Granger, North Jackson street, is at home again next week from Camp Funston, Kansas, where she has been in the employ of the government for a year and a half. She is private secretary to Major Wood.

John C. Doolittle, Milwaukee street, was the guest this week of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doolittle, Evansville.

Mrs. John Dower, Madison, spent Friday in Janesville. She came down to attend a meeting of a bridge club, held at the home of Mrs. William Tallman, Madison street.

Mrs. William Langdon, Hickory street, is home from a few days spent at the home of her sister in Cleveland, Ohio.

John Clegg, Milwaukee street, has returned from a visit this week at the home of his sister, Mrs. Dan Covell, Evansville.

P. N. Scoville, Chicago, was a business visitor in Janesville for the past two days.

Sylvester Luby, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Luby, 255 South Jackson street, arrived home today from Dubuque college, Dubuque, Iowa. Mrs. A. M. Van Wormer and Mrs. T. J. Grady and son, John, Chehalis, S. Dak., spent Wednesday with friends in Janesville.

Mrs. Peter Myers and Miss Gertrude

Your Xmas Gift

Teach your son and daughter to love music by making them familiar with it when they are young and you will give them a friend which they will reassume more as the years go by.

God sent His singers upon earth
With songs of sadness and of mirth
That they might touch the hearts of men,
And bring them back to Heaven again.—LONGFELLOW

SCHUMANN PIANOS are becoming more scarce each month—due to the lack of high grade materials. Reserve your Piano early with a small down payment, for delivery Xmas Eve, and begin moderate monthly payments after the first of the year.

Beautiful Pianos and Players in Walnut, Satin or Polished Oak, Satin Mahogany.

Convenient credit terms.

Kuhlow's
MUSIC STORE
Opp. Court House Park.

52 S. Main St.

B. H. KUHLOW, Mgr.

SELLERY TELLS OF EDUCATIONAL NEEDS

A discussion of the problems connected with educational reconstruction was the feature of the meeting of the men's Open Forum held at the First church last evening. Prof. George Sellery, dean of the liberal arts course at the University of Wisconsin, gave an informal talk on that subject. He outlined some of the problems, showed the importance of the applied sciences, the high standard of morale, the necessity of physical vigor, and the great need of industrial co-operation in the production of goods. All of these things he said were demonstrated to be of first importance during the war.

On the first topic he said that the courses of chemistry, commerce and those having to do with scientific achievements were more than doubled in the number of students that year. A course of study which should include not only the practical studies which might bring wealth to an individual, but also those of more spiritual nature like literature, music and art which contributed to the enjoyment of life was advocated by Sellery. Sellery was of the opinion of limiting the interest of a pupil to a prospective job was pointed out.

A rousing address on "Americanization in the Public Schools" was given by Frank J. Lowth, principal of the Technical Training school. He emphasized the thought that the war had demonstrated the need of education in civic ideals and citizenship. That dense ignorance had been shown by thousands of young men examined in the cantonments. He recommended that all agencies of the schools be used to teach patriotism.

Prof. H. H. Faust and J. T. Hooper spoke briefly along this line. Robert Cunningham was in charge of the program. Music was furnished by John H. and John and Royden Krohn on the guitars.

A supper was served at 6:20 o'clock to about 75 men by the King's Daughters with a committee headed by Mrs. Charles Eller.

Give player rolls to your friends who have player pianos. We make a specialty of good player rolls. Boyd Hill's Song Shop. Remember Where.

Miss Mary Egan, who for the past 5 years has been librarian of the public library, will leave the city this evening for Clinton, Ia., where she will take charge of the public library in that city.

Miss Fannie Cox, Detroit, will not take charge of the local library until the first of the year. Until she comes Miss Emily Moeser, children's librarian, will act as librarian. She will be assisted by the Misses Alta Field and Isabel Smith.

Short talks by delegates will be the feature of the program. A complete summary of the talks will be given by the sponsors. The program is as follows:

Song service, led by J. C. Koller; scripture lesson, led by George Conner; singing, girl delegations; prayer, Mildred Smith; Robert Grubbs; reports, "What the Conference Means," Doretha Ostreich; "Give and Get," Kenneth Kober; "The Spirit of the Conference," Marie Hughes; "Our Task," Elliott Dose; "The Queen Sector," Lester Fustind; "The Result of the Conference," Esther Field; "Art," Leo Powers.

AUCTION SALE
22 Cows for sale at Robt. M. Ashton's place, 1 mile east of the Court House on Wednesday, Dec. 17, at 1 o'clock. W. T. Dooley, Auct.

Read the Classified Ads.

Home of Everything New in Music. The Judge Show, E. Millw. St.

Navy Blankets Put on Sale at Great Lakes

A large number of blankets have been put on sale at the Great Lakes training station, according to word received by Postmaster J. J. Cunningham. These blankets are the surplus of the navy and are now offered for sale to the public. The army recently had a sale of surplus blankets, too, which were all wool and combed. The blankets for sale are all-wool and are of the regulation size. They sell for $8.35. Those wishing to buy should send the money to the Great Lakes Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill., from where they will be shipped.

Two More Court Martials To Follow That of Detzer
New York, N. Y., Dec. 13.—The second of the court martials will follow that of Capt. Karl W. Detzer, former commander of the 408th military police company, who is being tried as a Governor's Island on charges of brutality to prisoners in Le Mans.

Major William P. Kelly, judge advocate, who previously had announced that U. S. Madden, 1Pittsburgh, one of Detzer's sergeants, would be brought to trial today, stated that Lieut. Leonard D. Mahon, a former Washington policeman and organizer of the 308th, would be tried on charges of failing to obey orders. Detzer, Mahon now is under arrest.

Second Hand Typewriters.

New Typewriters.

Agency for the Sundstrand Adding Machine.

Chicago's Most Modern Fireproof Hotel

Over 1000 rooms. Each room has a bath and running ice water, is completely and luxuriously furnished. Every room has its own keeper—every known facility for your personal comfort.

Nothing less than your entire satisfaction will satisfy us.

The Home of the Famous TERRACE GARDEN

Chicago's Most Beautiful

Entertainment unequalled

America's Show Place

Morrison Hotel

Madison at Clark St.

Management Harry C. Mohr

H. E. WEMPLE

17 S. Main St. Next to Beverly Theatre.

Bell, 179. R. C. 988 Black. Madison Office, Bank of Wisconsin Bldg.

The Best Christmas Gift

That a man may give his Wife or Mother on Christmas morning is a kind of Life Insurance Policy; that kind which pays the principal sum not only for death, but for yourself to use in your own old age, that kind which offers not only protection for your dependents against death, but also against disability, and guarantees a Savings Account for you as well.

SEE SENNETT SOON

George J. Sennett, Agency.
123 W. Milwaukee St.
Bell phone 56. R. C. 568 Red.

Winter Joys at Jolly Links

(BY DELI MILTMORE.)

Remember those clowns that got stuck with their machine? An' traded for my runabout? I wish you could've seen 'em. They grinned when they drove in that night the plot was tied. He said he'd told 'em prehach we helped him get his bride. Of course the Parson praised us up (We know him all my life.) Suggested that they spend a week. I said, "Just ask my wife."

Well we sure had some visit an' were happy as could be. It's 'pears they knew our son in town—he'd heard him speak o' me. An' though 'twas plain enough to see that he jest rolled in wealth. Th' things he seemed to praise th' most were happy hearts an' health. Last week Ma wrote a letter an' she asked me to come down with Joe's folks and our friends th' Rothes who planned to come in town.

She said I bring some sweaters, flannel shirts an' stockin' caps. T' dress real warm an' cozy without bunglin' fancy wraps. She said it wasn't a fashion show like Easter in th' parks. An' say! They caught th' big idea an' came prepared for larks. We had old fashioned bob rides. I had found a string o' bells—Their music was a novelty to those city swells.

Now most folks like th' summer an' th' joys of early spring. But when th' winds o' winter make th' wired poles hum an' sing—Th' boys an' girls are happy an' their spirits leap an' dance. You know it by th' cheery hall an' merriness, wholesome glance. They know a storm's a-brewin' an' they shout, "It's goin' to snow!" It 'minds me of th' days our son was just "our little Joe."

Well Sir! They skated, coasted an' had sleigh rides by th' score. An' with their skis upon the hill they all had fun galore.

An' here I am all cozy in th' sunny sittin' room. Just sat an' watched their antics. Say! th' biggest grouch and gloom. Would fade away right sudden if you watched a scene like that. For some were fine an' graceful while th' next went sprawlin' flat.

Th' boys an' girls an' little lads from all the countryside. Had always been well welcome on th' hill ' come an' slide. They'd all piled on an' built a jump jest midway down th' hill. Th' wind started jest below but others showed their skill. By evening to th' very top and down th' hill they whirled. An' took th' jump an' skimmed through space just like some giant bird.

One tiny lad had barrel slaves. You ought to seen him try! He made me think o' robins when they're learnin' how to fly. It made me think o' robins when they're learnin' how to fly. T'was some exhilaratin' sport an' Ma she'd laugh an' say, "I'll be comin' when I've seen such fun as we've seen t' day."

I'll be comin' when I've seen such fun as we've seen t' day. We took th' whole caboodle to th' Jolly Golf Club dance. They say they're comin' soon again if they can get a chance.

BOYS, GIRLS, TO TALK AT CHURCH SERVICE

LIBRARIAN LEAVES FOR NEW WORK IN CLINTON

A union service of the Federated and Baptist churches will be held at the first church on 7:30 Sunday evening. Delegates, who attended both the Older Boys' and Older Girls' conferences held two weeks ago, will make reports of the conferences.

Short talks by delegates will be the feature of the program. A complete summary of the talks will be given by the sponsors. The program is as follows:

BLIND STUDENTS KNIT ARTICLES FOR R. C.

Mrs. J. T. Hooper, chairman of the knitting committee for the Wisconsin School for the Blind auxiliary of the Janesville branch; A. R. C. Tutt, C. S. B., of Kansas City, Mo., a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church; the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., in the church service; C. L. Clark, of Franklin, and S. W. T. T. Jackson, of South High Street, Janesville, on Monday evening, December 15, 1919, at 8:15 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

AUCTION SALE
22 Cows for sale at Robt. M. Ashton's place, 1 mile east of the Court House on Wednesday, Dec. 17, at 1 o'clock. W. T. Dooley, Auct.

Read the Classified Ads.

Home of Everything New in Music. The Judge Show, E. Millw. St.

Join Today, Our

The Janesville Gazette

New Building, 202-204 East Milwaukee St.
Entered at the Postoffice, Janesville, Wis., as Second Class Mail Matter.

Full Lensed Wire News Report by the Associated Press.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
By carrier in Janesville 15c week, $7.50 per year.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use of reproduction of all news distributed, credited to it or not credited in this paper and also local news published herein.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1919.

THE GAZETTE'S PLATFORM FOR JANESEVILLE AND ROCK COUNTY.

Community Betterments to which this Newspaper is Pledged.

An adequate and modern hotel.
A community building containing an auditorium, woman's rest room, and memorial hall for soldiers, sailors and nurses.

Traffic regulations which will reduce danger on streets to the minimum.

A street car service which will answer the needs of an increasing population.

Improved streets in the city and better roads in the country.

A survey of the housing situation with a view of discouraging exorbitant rentals for both rooms and houses.

Careful appraisal of property, particularly that of those who have increased their rentals, so that they may pay their fair share of the taxes.

A livestock pavilion at the fair grounds to take first place in the state as a stock producing center.

An indoor recreation center in which dances and sporting events may be held.

More parks and playgrounds for use of the entire community.

Protected ice-skating rinks for children.

DAGHESTAN

"Behind many a laconic cable dispatch of today which sounds dry and unpronounceable lies a background of vivid romance and human interest," says a bulletin of the National Geographic society, which calls attention to these lines from an Associated Press dispatch from Constantinople:

"The Lesghians, as these mountaineers are called,
have already surrounded Petrovsk, in northern Daghestan, thereby cutting the railway from the Baku oil field to Rostov-on-the-Don, which passes through Petrovsk."

Thus remote Daghestan, "an island in the sea of history," suddenly emerges into world limelight in connection with Gen. Denikine's struggle for Russian supremacy. George Kennan, in a communication to The Society, supplies the geographic setting and local color for this piece of news, as follows:

"In the southeastern corner of European Russia, between the Black Sea and the Caspian, in about the latitude of New York City, there rises abruptly from the dead level of the Tatar steppes a huge, broken wall of snowy, alpine mountains, which has been known to the world for more than 2,000 years as the great range of the Caucasus."

"It is in some respects one of the most remarkable mountain masses in existence. Its peaks outrank those of Switzerland, both in height and in rugged grandeur of outline; the glaciers, ice-falls, and avalanches are all upon the most gigantic scale; the diversity of its climates is only paralleled by the diversity of the races that inhabit it; and its history, beginning with the Argonautic expedition, is more remarkable and eventful than that of any other range on the globe."

"No other region that I have ever seen presents, in an equally limited area, such diversities of climate, scenery, and vegetation. On the northern side of the range the treeless wandering grounds of the Nogai Tatars —illimitable steppes, where for hundreds of miles the weary eye sees in summer only a parched waste of dry steppe grass, and in winter an ocean of snow, dotted here and there with the herds and the black tents of nomadic Mongols."

"But cross the great range from north to south, and the whole face of Nature is changed. From a boundless steppes you come suddenly into a series of shallow, fertile valleys, blossoming with flowers, green with vine-tangled forests, sunny and warm as the south of France."

"Sheltered by a rampart of mountains from the cold northern winds, vegetation here assumes an almost tropical luxuriance. Fruits, figs, olives, oranges, and pomegranates grow, almost without cultivation, in the open air; the magnificent forests of elm, oak, maple, Cochian poplar, and walnut are festooned with blossoming vines, and in autumn the sunny hillsides of Georgia, Kakhetia, and Mingrelia are fairly purple with vines of ripening grapes."

"Climate here is only a question of altitude. Out of these semi-tropical valleys you may climb in a few hours to the highest limit of vegetable life and eat your supper, if you feel so disposed, on the slow-moving ice of a glacier."

"The Caucasian range may be regarded for all ethnological purposes as a great mountainous island in the sea of human history, and on that island now lives together the surviving Robinson Crusoes of a score of ship-wrecked states and nationalities—the fugitive municipes of a hundred tribal Bounties."

"In Daghestan there are four or five thousand Jews, who, although they have lost their language and their national character, still cling to their religion; and among the high peaks of Tooshtia, in the same province, is settled a community of Christians, said to be the descendants of a band of medieval Crusaders. But these are exceptions; nine-tenths of the mountaineers are Mohammedans of the fiercest, most intolerant type."

"The languages and dialects spoken by the different tribes of this heterogeneous population are more than thirty in number, and two-thirds of them are to be found in the province of Daghestan, at the eastern end of the range, where the ethnological diversity of the population is most marked."

"Languages spoken by only 12 or 15 settlements are comparatively common; and on the headwaters of the Andiski Icolu, in southwestern Daghestan, there is an isolated village of 50 or 60 houses—the abode of Innoquo—which has a language of its own, not spoken or understood by any other part of the whole Caucasian population."

"Of course, the life, customs, and social organizations of a people who originated in the way that I have described, and who live for perhaps 2,000 years in almost complete isolation from all the rest of the world, presented when they first became known many strange and archaic features. In the secluded valleys and canyons of the eastern Caucasus it was possible to study a state of society that existed in England before the Norman conquest, and see in full operation customs and legal processes that had been obsolete everywhere else in Europe for at least a millennium."

"Many of the aouts of central and southern Daghestan bear a striking resemblance to the pueblos and cliff-dwellings of New Mexico. The stone-walled houses are built together in a compact mass on the steep slope of a high terrace, and the flat roofs rise in tiers or steps, one above another, just as they do in the settlements of

JUST FOLKS

Edgar A. Guest

TABLE MANNERS.

When company comes here for tea
I'm just as good as I can be;
I sit up straight before the table
And eat as nicely as I'm able.
My hands are always clean and white.
And I do things exactly right.
I do not cream my mouth with food.
For mother says that's very rude.
I never sprawl my arms out wide,
But keep my elbows at my side.
(That may be proper, but I'll say It's awful hard to eat that way.)

When company comes here to eat
I don't slip back into my seat,
But sit up very stiff and straight
And wait until I get my plate.
My table manners are correct.
And all that grown folks should expect.
I never shout for things I see.
But wait until they're passed to me.
And that is proper, but I'll say
I miss a lot of food that way,
'Coz they forget to ask if I
Would like another piece of pie.

And when they're serving out the cake
The biggest piece I never take;
The table cloth I never smear
The way I do when folks aren't here.
I's just as proper as can be
When company is here to tea,
I always try the best I can
To be a little gentleman.
But Oh, I like it better when
The company goes home again.
'Coz I get more to eat at night
When I don't have to be polite.

—Copyright 1919 by Edgar A. Guest.

our pueblo Indians. The roof of one house forms a small square front yard for the occupants of the house next above it, and ladders serve as means of inter-communication between the roofs of the ascending tiers."

(A second bulletin will tell of the ancient customs of the people in the Caucasus region, where world history now is being enacted.)

REMEMBER THE SHOP GIRLS

This is the season of the year, when good cheer should be uppermost. It is the time for frolics and gaiety.
It is the time of preparation for good things.
It is a time of busy-ness.

For some it is a time of dread; of hard work; of over-wrought nerves; of terrific strain.

It is such for the girls who stand behind the counter in the stores, handing down this, answering questions, making change, satisfying customers who are themselves nervous and over wrought. It is hardes for many a shop girl.

The Christmas spirit should mean more to the people than the giving of gifts. It should infest the purchasing of those gifts. It should be allowed to sweep over the counter to the girl who so pleasantly and quickly hands you the article you seek.

If you have not done your Christmas shopping early as it has come to mean, do the rest of it as early in the morning as you possibly can. Do it while the clerks are seeing the best; when the stock is not yet disarranged; when the rush has not yet started.

Pass some of the Christmas spirit to the girl behind the counter. Do your late Christmas shopping early—early in the day.

Their Opinions

The captain of industry begins to realize the mutability of human affairs when he lines up to the grocery counter and humbly asks for a pound of sugar—Martineau Eagle-Star.

Some Englishmen are proposing that Great Britain pay her war debts by selling her churches, auctioning them off to the highest bidders. Many an American millionaire would doubtless pay a fancy price for St. Paul's or the Westminster Abbey, quite regardless of what he would do with it when he got it.—Appleton Crescent.

The uncertainty regarding reports of Villa's capture furnish a reminder of the time when, for many weeks, there was similar uncertainty whether Villa was really alive or dead.—Oshkosh Northwestern.

The dollar in money and the pound of butter, seem to be trying to meet on terms of equality.—Superior Telegram.

Between trying to keep tab on the Mexican situation and also stretching the fuel bin's contents to the utmost, Mr. Average American is having a busy time these days.—Fond du Lac Reporter.

One good reason if there weren't plenty of others, for settling this election right is that Wisconsin has enough elections without inviting congress another time to give us a special.—Milwaukee Journal.

Backward Glimpses

FORTY YEARS AGO

Dec. 13, 1879.—A large number attended the annual reception and dance given by the Guards last night at Canon's Hall. Anderson's orchestra furnished the music.—Prof. Butler, Madison, will occupy the Congregational pulpit tomorrow.—Miss Ella Few, who has been spending some months in this city, will return to her home in Leavenworth, Kansas, tomorrow.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Dec. 13, 1889.—A lengthy rhetorical program, of 23 numbers, was presented at the high school this afternoon.—Thomas Murphy, age 79 years, died this afternoon after an illness of over a year.—The world-famed Baltimore choir will give an entertainment at the Congregational church tomorrow evening, under the auspices of the Caledonian society.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Dec. 13, 1899.—Over 125 members of the Twilight club attended the meeting last night at the Myers House. J. S. Mahoney had charge of the program.—The Philippine Island situation was discussed.—Janesville will be well represented at the semi-annual meeting of the Wisconsin coal retailers at Milwaukee beginning tomorrow.

TEN YEARS AGO

Dec. 13, 1909.—At the meeting of the local chapter of Knights of Columbus last night, A. J. Wilbur was elected Grand Knight for the coming year.—William H. Tripp, a pioneer settler of Rock county, died yesterday morning.—A class of 145 was confirmed at both the Catholic churches yesterday morning.

Sketches From Life - By Temple

Edgar A. Guest

New Father is Broke Again!

ON THE SPUR of the MOMENT

ROY E. MOULTON

THIS KICKER.
He kicks about the weather and
He kicks about the shows;
He kicks about the service and
The food where'er he goes.
He kicks about the street cars and
He kicks about the theater;
He kicks about the baseball games
When he goes on a pass.
He kicks about the president,
He kicks about the king;
He kicks about the house of lords,
And almost everything.
He kicks about his neighbors and
He kicks about his wife.
He kicks when there is too much
He kicks when there is strife.
When he gets to the promised land
It's going to make him sick;
It won't be heaven there for him
Without chance to kick.

If some genius will invent a two-wheeled automobile he will do away with exactly one-half the tire trouble!

There are a whole lot of famous diplomats in this world who can't frame up a reasonable excuse for getting home late at night.

WHAT DID WHISPERING TUTTLE WHISPER?
(From the Washington Appeal.)

Whispering Tuttie from Foster's Mills was fined $300 and costs on a charge of slandering Hogel Brothers of Sheridan last winter.

NOT KNOCKING SAEGEVILLE.
(From the Mercury, Iowa Appeal.)

Miss Bertha Abbott is convalescing after spending a week in Saegerville.

AND SOMETIME THE LINOTYPE SPUTTERS, TOO.
(From the St. Louis Republic.)

Mr. and Mrs. Richmond of Clark avenue have returned from their long sojourn at SSSSSandy Lake.

CONSOLATION.

I love to sit upon my cottage porch
And watch the folk ride by in fine machines;

I love to see the handsome touring cars;

The cute coupes and ponderous
limousines;

I love the odor that they leave for me
To breathe long after they have hurried by.

I love to sit and suffocate
In clouds of dust they have caused to fly;

I love to sit and listen to the honks
And squeaks and squawks and crieks they hurl at me.

They make me deaf to pessimists
And I am deaf.

Forget my other troubles all, you see.

So let them snort and honk and hit the breeze.

And burst their tires and suffer other ills.

Let them enjoy what peace of mind they may.

I am content. I do not get the bills.

Had Nero Sun' in Vault.

We would. We had a little million of three hundred and fifty million silver dollars, ready coined, that we would sell to Great Britain for silver cents for the precious metals.

But rapidly disappear from circulation.

If the government attempts to replace it, the result will be to increase the material from which silver cents are made.

Smelters make a profit. Smelting one hundred million silver dollars would be worth more than $1,000,000.

So it appears that the metal must be up to $1.35 or better before there will be much melting. It has not quite reached that figure yet.

This is the silver center of the world.

Probably England, which produced no silver, will never become the silver center again. Probably the orient will bid direct through America.

America is interested in gold, price of which England was not.

Possibly permanent high prices for silver may result from these changes.

Now the orient is buying silver direct from us. No longer is the silver business done through us.

It is the silver center of the world.

The government should not worry about silver dollars should be melted. It has not coined silver dollars for a long time. It may never coin them again. It is about converted to the belief that only subsidary coins, those of the old iron man is destined to take his place with those who have gone before.

PIG CLUB RECORD BOOKS DUE NEXT WEEK

All record books of members of the Rock County Boys' and Girls' Pig Club must be in the hands of County Agent R. T. Glassco by next Saturday. He announced this morning that they desire to compete for the prizes offered for the best. The prizes are $5, $3, and $2 for the first, second, and third place.

A committee committee on awards will be chosen by Mr. Glassco next week. Announcements will be made of the prizes as soon as the winners have been selected.

Neatness, accuracy, and results will largely determine the winners.

A short story on pig raising, taking the own pig as the illustration, will enter into the results.

The record books contain a complete resume from the time the pig was acquired until the present showing how much it was fed, cost of feed; increase in weight; cost of raising; and any interesting features.

DO YOU WANT A RICHER MILK

We are now in a position to furnish our customers with a superior quality Guernsey Milk from the best herds in Rock County.

JANESEVILLE PURE MILK CO.

G. M. C. Buys Land For Samson Company

Large purchases of land in the vicinity of Spring Brook continue to be made by the General Motors Corporation in the eventual use of the Samson Tractor company for building and kindred purposes. Deeds filed today cover 17 lots.

Charles Boehm of Janesville has sold 12 lots to Hamilton's addition to Janesville to the General Motors Corporation. In a deed dated 19, the officer of the register of deeds here this morning. Several hundred thousand dollars are involved.

This procedure follows the announcement recently by A. Craig, president of the Janesville Motors company, that the General Motors had taken over the business and property of his company, to operate it as a part of the Samson Tractor company.

NOTICE OF MEETING.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of The First National Bank of Janesville, Wis., for the purpose of electing Directors and transacting any other business which may properly be brought before the meeting, will be held at the banking office of said bank on Tuesday, January 13th, 1920, between the hours of 10:00 A. M. and 1:00 P. M.

Dated December 13th, 1919.

H. S. HAGGART, Cashier.

Everything Musical Always. The Music Shop. E. Milwaukee St.

Evansville News

[By Cassette Correspondent] Evansville, Dec. 13.—On account of the 4:45 p. m. train being discontinued, Father Willmann, Janesville, will be unable to get here Sunday afternoon, so there will be no Lenten service in St. John's church.

Earl Wolf, Madison, spent Thursday with Evansville relatives and friends.

Mrs. Thelow Donn, Stoughton, is spending a few days with relatives here.

Miss Rosalia Forn, who teaches in the Wilder school in the town of Porter, went to her home in Janesville last night, to spend the weekend.

Miss Maude Pierce will entertain the White Star Neighborhood club next Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennard Roberts are planning on moving into the Ezra Giddon house March 1st. Mr. Giddon and family will then move to their farm.

W. H. Griffith was a Janesville visitor Friday.

The Parent-Teachers' association met in the 7th grade room last week. Miss Ruth Brundage was hostess. Miss Elizabeth Baker gave an address. Miss Edith Riles of the State Board of Health illustrated her address, "Disease Prevention," with stereopticon slides.

Mrs. Nellie Hawley-Scott returned Thursday to her home in Arville. Her grandmother, Mrs. E. E. M. Hawley, Arville, was here to remain with her during the winter.

Mrs. Mary E. Brown, who has been here with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Spratton, left today for Milwaukee, Ill. She will make an indefinite stay there with her son, Harold Brown, and family.

Last Friday evening 20 school friends of Miss Mario Patterson, met at her home and surprised her with a party in honor of her 16th birthday. The evening was spent in playing games. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Miss Nellie Peterson, Brooklyn, spent yesterday with Evansville friends.

George Jones, Chicago, arrived here last night for a brief visit at the L. F. Miller home.

Congregational Church school 10:10 a. m. welcome. Preaching service 11:00. Subject "Stewardship." Junior Endeavor 3:00. Christian Endeavor 6:30. Topic, "How Use The Bible," Catherine Rodd, leader. Evening worship 7:30. Union service addressed by Rev. Tippins. Methodist meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Free Methodist Church: Sunday School 10:00. Preaching 11:00. Class meetings 12:00. Young Peoples' Praise and Prayer Service 7:00. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30. The public is cordially invited to any or all of these services.

Baptist Church.

Morning worship 10:30. Subject of sermon: "The Closed Door." Sunday school 11:45. Junior B. Y. P. 11:30 a. m. Intermediate, Senior B. Y. P. 6:30. Afternoons, youth, women, leaders. Topic: "Home Mission and Democracy." Union service, 7:30, in the Congregational church. Service at Union: Sunday school, 1:30. Preaching 2:30.

Christian Science.

Subject: "God the Preserver of man." Wednesday evening service will be held during the month of December at the home of Mrs. De Gelle.

Methodist Church.

Sunday school at 10. Morning worship 11:45. Dr. J. H. Tipper of Appling will preach. Epworth League, 6:30. Evening service in Congregational church. Bible class on Tuesday at 7:30. Quarterly conference Dec. 17. Dr. Turner presiding.

AUTO SERVICE.

During the period of restricted train service the Gazette will send its mail by automobile, roads permitting, to Evansville each day.

Home of Everything New in E. Milwaukee St. Phone No. 30.

FINAL PLANS FOR "Y" BANQUET MADE

Final plans for the men's banquet to be held at the "Y" at 6:30 o'clock Monday evening were nearing completion today. Reservations are being received by Physical Director Craig and the present outlook indicates that the affair will be one of the most interesting and largest attended held thus far.

An address on "The Value of Physical Training," by Dr. J. E. Medessoff, general secretary of the Milwaukee "Y" and former physical director of the Detroit association, will be the feature address of the evening.

Announcement of the basketball teams, volleyball leagues and all other activities of the men's department of the "Y" will be made at this time.

Reservations of the banquet will be held open until 9 o'clock Monday morning, according to an announcement made at the "Y" this morning.

Officers elected at the meeting will be: Jennie Toolen, past chanceller; Ernest Schafenberg, chanceller; L. C. Clegg, vice chanceller; L. C. Clegg, chaplain; John Andrews, recorder; Will Kennedy, sentinel; Emma Hazelton, guard; Gena Gilbertson, conductor; Will Blank, assistant conductor; trustees, Earl Cutts, 3 years; Grover Colby, 3 years, and George Geske, 1 year.

Chicken pie supper was served after the business was transacted.

Jamesville city judge No. 30, I. O. F. will give a dance Tuesday evening in the west side hall for the newcomers to the city who are Odd Fellows. The business meeting will be held first.

ST. JOSEPH'S COURT NO. 220 C. O. F. will meet Monday evening in the Spanish American war veterans hall.

CHIMNEY FIRE.

A chimney fire at the home of Herman Franks, 421 Williams street, called out the department at 7:20 o'clock last evening. There was no damage.

EASY MONEY.

To wear a straw hat in sub-zero weather requires a display of spiciness. Philip O'Donnell, clerk in the Rehberg store, did it and reaped a cash profit.

PREPARE FOR XMAS BUSH.

An additional wagon was put to work this morning for delivering parcel post packages. This is the first preparation for the Christmas bush, which it is expected will be this coming week.

Officers recommended at the post office are crowded at the post office and people are urged to send parcels early.

READ METERS.

Seven of eight boys were put to work this morning reading water meters for the city. They are working in all parts of town. It is expected that the work will be completed within about a week.

Give player rolls for Christmas. Large stock at Boyd Hill's Song Shop. Remember Where.

Big 5 Coffee 50c Per Lb.

A coffee of unusual taste appeal. Try at pound with your next order.

We are sure you will appreciate the good qualities of BIG 5 COFFEE.

E. A. ROESLING

Corner Center and Western Ave.

7 Phones—All 125.

Japan's Finest Tea

No matter how much you are willing to pay money can buy no better than the popular

"Roseleaf" at 60c lb.

Always ask for "Roseleaf" when buying Japan Tea.

Dedrick Bros.

Exclusive Agents.

Shirts

Gloves

Mittens

Socks

Sweaters

Wholesale and Retail

Janesville Hide and Leather Co.

222 W. Milwaukee St.

"The Leather and Trunk Store."

Municipal Bonds

Free from Federal Income Taxes

Being paid out of the taxes levied and collected by the issuing municipality, municipal bonds are a prior lien to every other form of debt.

Our complete list sent on request.

We sell single bonds.

The Hanchett Bond Co.

Inc. 1910.

MUNICIPAL BONDS

39 S. La Salle St. Chicago

JOHN C. HANCHETT

Resident Partner

455 N. Jackson St. Phone No. 30

Lodge News

regiment; Clyde F. Suttle, Berlin, lieutenant of the first regiment; J. W. Van Beynum, Janesville, major of the first battalion.

Officers for the year were elected at the meeting of W. H. Sargent Post No. 220 C. O. F. Held in the basement of the Elks hall.

The new officers are: L. M. Nelson, commander; L. B. T. Winslow, senior vice commander; David Lawrence, junior vice commander; S. C. Burnham, chaplain; C. J. Schott, quartermaster; L. Tramble, surgeon; Raynor, officer of the guard; A. J. Hall, trustee for three years; M. Hall, trustee for three years; M. Raynor and John Reeder, delegates to the state convention; L. Tramble and David Lawrence, alternates.

The children remember some misdeed that cost them severe punishment, and they were still young enough to be made to understand.

One little fellow got so annoyed in his story that he had to get upon his knees—all the children were squatting around the story-teller, Mrs. Eldredge Field.

The one funny one to go home on was "The Milk Cow Man." This was a humorous reading of a child's description of the mysteries of the cow.

We give all of our time to the sale of player rolls and to the great music of piano and organ.

She told the stories in a delightful manner, impersonating the various characters in such an amusing way that all hearers gave the closest attention.

Purchasing player rolls is a pleasure.

After the old story of "The Nurnberg Stove" was told and the children had seen Carl, a great artist, and the old stove back in his home, the prank of Espaninadas made

KIDDIES ALL EXCITED ABOUT PICCANINNY

"And the lady who told me the story didn't know what had happened to Espaninadas, and the lady who told her didn't know, and the lady who— But the 75 small children were listening intently at the library this morning when a story was told in such an amusing way that all hearers gave the closest attention.

The pranks of Espaninadas made

the children remember some misdeed

that cost them severe punishment,

and they were still young enough to be made to understand.

One little fellow got so annoyed in his story that he had to get upon his knees—all the children were squatting around the story-teller, Mrs. Eldredge Field.

The one funny one to go home on was "The Milk Cow Man." This was a humorous reading of a child's description of the mysteries of the cow.

We give all of our time to the sale of player rolls and to the great music

of piano and organ.

She told the stories in a delightful manner, impersonating the various characters in such an amusing way that all hearers gave the closest attention.

Purchasing player rolls is a pleasure.

After the old story of "The Nurnberg Stove" was told and the children had seen Carl, a great artist, and the old stove back in his home, the old

prank of Espaninadas made

the children remember some misdeed

that cost them severe punishment,

and they were still young enough to be made to understand.

One little fellow got so annoyed in his story that he had to get upon his knees—all the children were squatting around the story-teller, Mrs. Eldredge Field.

The one funny one to go home on was "The Milk Cow Man." This was a humorous reading of a child's description of the mysteries of the cow.

We give all of our time to the sale of player rolls and to the great music

of piano and organ.

She told the stories in a delightful manner, impersonating the various characters in such an amusing way that all hearers gave the closest attention.

Purchasing player rolls is a pleasure.

After the old story of "The Nurnberg Stove" was told and the children had seen Carl, a great artist, and the old stove back in his home, the old

prank of Espaninadas made

the children remember some misdeed

that cost them severe punishment,

and they were still young enough to be made to understand.

One little fellow got so annoyed in his story that he had to get upon his knees—all the children were squatting around the story-teller, Mrs. Eldredge Field.

The one funny one to go home on was "The Milk Cow Man." This was a humorous reading of a child's description of the mysteries of the cow.

COACH YOST WILL SUGGEST CHANGES IN GRIDIRON RULES

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 13.—Changes that will, he says, go far toward living up to uniform interpretation of football rules, some of which only few coaches, officials and players now agree on, will be suggested to the meeting this winter of the rules committee in Madison, Wis. Yost, now of the University of Michigan since 1901, it became known here today. The proposed modifications would in no way affect the play, according to Coach Yost. It is not the value of the rules to take away touchdowns by inflicting penalties for fouls which had no bearing on the play, the Michigan mentor holds. In line with that idea he believes that the rules imposing ten yard penalties for "slipping" or running into an opponent after the ball has been received, and for drawing, should be changed to apply the punishment in such manner that loss of a touchdown, if one had been made, would not be caused by bringing the ball back to where it was at the play and measuring the distance from that point.

Coach Yost also favors strongly a penalty being levied against a team that is not on the field ready to play at the hour for the game to start. He cites the rule requiring teams to arrive at the field 30 minutes early for starting the third quarter.

The fifteen yard penalty for attacking a runner when he has gone out of bounds, should be inflicted from the point where the ball was carried across the side-lines instead of where it was snapped back, in the opinion of Yost.

GREENLEAF WINS CUE CHAMPIONSHIP

Philadelphia, Dec. 13.—E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Delaware, won the pocket billiard championship of the United States by winning his eighth straight game.

ALEXANDER SAYS 1920 WILL BE HIS BEST

Louisville, Dec. 13.—Grover Cleveland Alexander is confidently looking forward to his next season, as he prepares to meet his old master, Coates, who is visiting in Louisville with Mrs. Alexander, declared on Friday that he is impatiently awaiting the un-

APOLLO

Matinee Daily 2:30
Evening 7:30 & 9:00

TONIGHT
and Sunday

Feature Vaudeville

Three Rainos
"The Call of the Jungle" Mimicry.

Clifton & Kramer
"Mr. Larson"
Comedy Singing and Talking.

Estelle De Shon
"The Joy Girl"
In Comic Songs.

Dore & Lillian
Those two fast steppers.
Singing and Eccentric Dancing.

MAJESTIC--TONIGHT

MARIE WALCAMP in
"TEMPEST CODY'S MAN HUNT" Also MILDRED MOORE and HOOT GIBSON
in "THE CROW"

SUNDAY AND MONDAY
FACING DEATH—DID HE QUIT?

SEE GEORGE WALSH in "THE WINNING STROKE"
The Thrilling Story of a College Hero.
Also One Reel of "VOD-A-VIL MOVIES"
Matinee, 2:30.

DANCE ARMORY, Tuesday, Dec. 16, 9 to 1 $1.00 Couple 25c Extra Ladies

The Original Blue Mound Country Club Orchestra formerly

Renowned "Jackie Jazz Orchestra" last of Sousa's Naval Band.

Featuring State's Supreme and Youngest Jazz Accordionist.

Late of Vaudeville

Myers Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 15-16 Special Matinee on Tuesday

The Fun Show of the World Bringing Up Father In Society An Absolute New Show This Visit

40 People. 25 Musical Numbers. A Host of Pretty, Singing, Dancing, Laughing Girls, All Under 20

If the Cartoons have ever made you LAUGH it is probable the same characters in FLESH AND BLOOD will make you ROAR.

PRICES—Nights 50c, 75c, $1.00. Matinee: Lower Floor 50c, Balcony 25c.

SEATS ON SALE NOW—GET THE BEST.

The Prices are So Low and the Show So Good that You Will Have to Get Your Seats Early if You Want Choice Ones.

SELECT PICTURES

JOSEPH M. SCHENCK

presents

NORMA TALMADGE in The Isle of Conquest

Adapted by John Emerson and Anita Loos, from Arthur Hornblow's famous novel "By Right of Conquest."

Directed by Edward José.

The Story of a Brave Girl's Fight For Happiness; an Absorbing Drama that Strikes Straight to the Heart. Beautiful Scenes—Lavish Settings—and a Thrilling Journey Through Nature's Wonderland.

LOVE! HATE! ADVENTURE! ROMANCE!

APOLLO

Matinee 2:30.
Evenings 7:30 and 9:00.

MONDAY TUESDAY WEDNESDAY

Popular Prices—Matinee and evening, 25c.

COMING—The Winninger Players with John and Adolph.

MYERS THEATRE

TONIGHT

AND SUNDAY VAUDEVILLE

Roberts & Fulton
Singing Oddity.

Propeller Trio
Comedy and Harmony Singers

Ed. J. Lambert
Musical Comedy Comedian.

Leonard & Whitney
"Duffy's Rise."

—Also—

FEATURE PICTURES

5—BIG ACTS—5

2 Shows Daily: 7:30 & 9:00

Matinee Sunday at 2:30.

That Ten Dollar Bill

Is worth just about $5 when it comes to buying clothing or food, but it's worth $10 plus 6% interest when used in purchasing a 6% Farm Mortgage Bond.

These bonds, issued in denominations of $100, $250, $500 and $1,000 used to be sold for cash. That's why lots of folks don't own any—but Didn't you buy Liberty Bonds on the Partial Payment Plan? It was a good idea.

That's why we've started selling 6% Farm Mortgage Bonds on the Partial Payment Plan. Just 10% of the amount of the bond you select will reserve if for you and you pay the balance in equal monthly payments.

Your Payments Draw Interest. While we're holding that bond for you it's drawing interest and you're entitled to the interest on the amount you have invested in the bond.

These bonds are always worth 100 cents on a dollar and in all our years of experience not one of our customers has ever lost a dollar by investing in them. That's the kind of bonds you want to buy.

Come in Monday or write us and start getting 6% on your money.

GOLD-STABECK COMPANY

C. J. Smith, Mgr.

15 W. Main St., Janesville, Wis.
Over Woolworth's

DANCE JAZZ BAND Keith Beecher's

Chicago Society Jazz Band formerly known as The Woodlawn Orchestra

at the

Apollo Hall,
Tuesday, Dec. 16

Admission $1.50 a couple including war tax.
Extra Ladies 25c. Dancing 9 P. M to 1 A. M.

SHARON

[By Gazette Correspondent]
Sharon, Dec. 13.—Ben Ayers passed away at his home here Thursday evening after a short illness.

The Milk Producers hold their annual meeting on Wednesday.

McNamee, editor of the Economic Review, died.

Elmer Danner was served by the ladies of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Ella Radway fell down stairs at her home here Thursday. She was badly injured and is now under the care of a doctor.

Esther James, Carl Morgan, Fran-ois Seavers and Mary Morrison Woods are ill with chicken pox.

A Good Times club was organized in Sharon the first part of the week.

The following are the officers elected:

President, Frank Ellison; vice president, Alvin Sweet; secretary and treasurer, Gus Moore. About 30 members have enrolled.

Mrs. Curtis Beecher returned

Thursday to her home in Beloit after a visit here with her mother, Mrs. J. Goelzer.

The Literary club of the high school will give a program at the school house Friday evening.

McNamee, editor of the Economic Review, died.

The pupils and teachers of the high school have raised $37.00 to send to the Armenians.

Shop in the Gazette before you shop in the stores.

JAPANESE STAGE PLAY WITH FIRST MINISTER

[By Associated Press]

Tokio (By Mail).—A famous Japanese actor, Koshiro, played in the role of Townsend Harris, the first American minister to Japan in a play presented in the Japanese language in the Imperial Japanese theatre the other day. Koshiro gave a faithful portrayal of America's first diplomat to Japan, having borrowed a portrait of Mr. Harris from the American embassy, through the kindness of Roland S. Morris.

The play was titled "The American Messenger" and was written by

Okamoto Kido. The gate in the Azabu temple in Tokio, which housed the first diplomatic mission from the United States, was the background for the first scene of the play. Two samurai father and son, are on their way to see Harris.

Two suspicious characters lurk around, ready at the first opportunity to assassinate the stranger from overseas. One of them is caught by the samurai and bound, but at Harris request is set free. Koshiro's en-foreign trade and conservatives clashed with progressives on this point. This was shown in a scene in a tea house in which a serving maid overhears a plot of two ruffians who are to lay in wait for the Minister on a nearby hill and kill him.

Extravagance

To not sell the things you have no use for is reckless waste. Rags bring money; 4 1/2 pound for clean wipers at Gazette.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON
Thompson in Cage of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I love a girl with whom I have been seeing more than any one else, but ever again she doesn't seem to care much for me. When she is with me she seems to love me, but she goes with other men and doesn't want me to know it. We are engaged and I have started to furnish my house. I do everything I can. It's Saturday I spend my time on her at town. What shall I do?

LONESOME GUY.

The girl lacks honor if what you say is true. Unless she stops going with other men, I would not advise you to marry her. Such a girl does not want a faithful wife. You can't have the money you spend on her. If I were you, I would stay away from town two or three Saturday nights and see if she cares for you then.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Please suggest a three-course lap wedding dinner.

We have thought of having salad, sandwiches, chicken and pickles for the first course; ice cream, cake for the third, but are unable to think of a second. Also, when should we serve the coffee?

MR. G. S. I would suggest that you serve chicken salad, sandwiches and pickles for the first course; ice cream, cake and nuts for the second; coffee for the third.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two chums and are always together. We are both considered good-looking. Our friends are always peevish at us because we speak to their beaux. They say we are trying to go with them. We have told these girls that we mean nothing by merely speaking to the boys.

CAPITAL AND GEVENOLA.

Probably you speak to the young

Health Talks

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Noted Physician and Author.

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writers' names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail. Write direct and not through a newspaper. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

The Man Convincing

Against His Will. Exponents of the "catching cold" photo are popularly educated. The "cold" lighting in the last ditch. I think the latter metaphor is the more appropriate, for they're taken to throwing Mudd at us newspaper health writers who decry the fear of drafts.

Dr. Mudd and Grant, it appears, have best conducted some method of ascertaining, using instruments of precision in an effort to determine what influence chilling of the skin surface may have if any, on the lining of the nose and throat. As every doctor-adding knowledge it is best assumed, since Harvey discovered the circulation of the blood that chilling of the surface drives the blood inwardly so that congestion of internal parts and organs results. About the time they were burning wicks in New England, the first congestion was determined to be the cause of any disease which was attributed to "taking cold" or "exposure." But of late, years a doctor's more pronouncements does not settle every question of all so-called "colds" are infectious, but also sensitively caused by bacteria, but also associated with the obstinate old colds, which are given the local supply of natural bactericidal substances in the blood, or by retarding the removal of the ordinary waste matter from the tissues of the body, and so forth and so on. Oh, your pen is in the fenced in no danger. You need never consent to come down—just step upbiting.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Chewing Nails.

I have a boy, aged 12, and a girl aged 11 who chew their finger nails. Have tried different ways to break them, but nothing but force will stop them. Could you tell me how to stop them, so that you can help me?

C. L. E. To have the nails very carefully manicured twice a week by a manicurist, for three weeks. Supply clean cloths, and let them keep their nails in the finest possible condition. This will remove the subconscious or unconscious temptation to bite the shoulders which forms a yolk.

Slow Heart Muscle Failure.

In your writings you frequently refer to slow heart muscle failure. I think answers to the following questions will interest great many readers.

1. What are the leading symptoms of this condition? Conditions exist, what, if anything, can be done in the way of cure, or to retard its progress?

C. L. E. The heart is a muscle. The heart muscle frequently undergoes a very insidious degenerative disease, and is paralized by cardiovascular disease which causes so much pain, that it causes heart attacks in middle age or afterward.

2. The leading symptoms are only suggestive; there are no symptoms suggesting heart muscle disease, or general loss of strength, undue breathlessness on exertions, which formerly caused no distress, a rattling in the heart, often accompanied by a tendency to become fatigued, from causes which formerly did not bother you. Symptoms like these, merely now, are not enough to warrant and indicate the need of a physical examination at reasonable intervals.

3. Much can be done for relief and prolongation of life, but it will not provide the victim does not want to live. Mudd is not willing to Grant the conservatives even this small comfort. It's a shame, and so sad.

He follows the doctor's advice.

She Married an Average Man

By ZOE BECKLEY.

Last night was one long joy of solid, dreamless sleep. The first I have known for weeks. Just before I put out my light I read Eric's letter again. It is curious how nearly a living thing a letter is. It bears the personality of its writer almost as vividly as the human form, certainly more warmly than it is honest.

Year—rein, Eric, after two. Then suddenly, in a flash of understanding, my vague impressions took form. I knew what Athene meant by "Eric's weakest link." It is his timeliness. His un-Americanism.

When an American goes abroad it is this very quality that enchants the non-American of people and places.

He thinks, just as I thought when I was on my vacation trip in England. "Oh, how heavenly it is—these sweet quiet evenings, where nobody thinks of worries and where there's time to live!"

If the traveler is a woman, and some bit of sentimental adventure glorifies her journey, she throws herself into it with the abandon of the primitive feminine. A glutton over all delicacies, takes some of all liberties. She does things she wouldn't do at home. She lives in a golden dream wherein the most incomplacable is transformed into romance.

And the man goes sailing, go walking, go swimming, go motorboating, have a feast spread in Eden. A boat with patched sails stained reddish brown has the edge of the world for the destination. A tramp in the forest of Fontainebleau, a tramp to the mountains, a man himself in like knight-errakers and rough boots, because Prince Charming, and she is a happy ruling queen.

The world becomes suddenly crowded with wonderful things to do, mysterious to explore, thrilling to experience—and now, Mrs. Grindit, with her haunting code of "Grindit" and "Mustn'ts" to call the bubbling spirit!

That was dawning through my mind when I fell asleep. And when I opened my eyes this morning I took up the thread again and was trying to follow it to a conclusion when Athene came rustling in with a handful of mail.

There was a letter from Jim, which made me think suddenly and oddly of broad and buttery cold spring water contrasted with cakes and sweet champagne!

And there was a note from Editor French, saying three more of my "messengers" had been printed, and that a little story I wrote weeks ago would come out in the next number of the "Messenger."

I am too happy to keep still. I dragged Athene out for a five-mile walk, and with part of my first story check we had luncheon at the swell hotel hotel. I am in one of my say-something mode, especially that I'm rested again, the sparkling cool, sweet ocean air. But it's mostly the triumphant chorus that my brain and my heart are singing. "We're succeeding, we're arriving; our work is going fine; journalism pay well!" I asked Athene.

"If you're thinking of Eric Sands," she answered, "I should say it does not. But divvily a bit care he. If you're thinking of yourself, I hope you can make it pay, and pay well."

Whether she meant it or not, Athene put her finger on the "weak link"—Eric's don't-care ness.

But when did a woman ever love man less because of one little weak link in his character?

(To be continued.)

$225,000 JEWEL LOST AT SEA. London, Eng.—Scotland Yard detectives are hoping that a solution may soon be provided of the mysterious disappearance of $225,000 worth of jewels which were lost at sea between Tilbury and Cobh, Ireland.

The jeweler was despatched by Kline Brothers of Moles House, Holborn Viaduct, to a member of the firm in Cobh. They included some unusually fine stones intended for the eastern markets. On the voyage they disappeared, and so far the mystery has baffled all attempts at elucidation.

to follow it to a conclusion when Athene came rustling in with a handful of mail.

There was a letter from Jim, which made me think suddenly and oddly of broad and buttery cold spring water contrasted with cakes and sweet champagne!

And there was a note from Editor French, saying three more of my "messengers" had been printed, and that a little story I wrote weeks ago would come out in the next number of the "Messenger."

I am too happy to keep still. I dragged Athene out for a five-mile walk, and with part of my first story check we had luncheon at the swell hotel hotel. I am in one of my say-something mode, especially that I'm rested again, the sparkling cool, sweet ocean air. But it's mostly the triumphant chorus that my brain and my heart are singing. "We're succeeding, we're arriving; our work is going fine; journalism pay well!" I asked Athene.

"If you're thinking of Eric Sands," she answered, "I should say it does not. But divvily a bit care he. If you're thinking of yourself, I hope you can make it pay, and pay well."

Whether she meant it or not, Athene put her finger on the "weak link"—Eric's don't-care ness.

But when did a woman ever love man less because of one little weak link in his character?

(To be continued.)

$225,000 JEWEL LOST AT SEA. London, Eng.—Scotland Yard detectives are hoping that a solution may soon be provided of the mysterious disappearance of $225,000 worth of jewels which were lost at sea between Tilbury and Cobh, Ireland.

The jeweler was despatched by Kline Brothers of Moles House, Holborn Viaduct, to a member of the firm in Cobh. They included some unusually fine stones intended for the eastern markets. On the voyage they disappeared, and so far the mystery has baffled all attempts at elucidation.

to follow it to a conclusion when Athene came rustling in with a handful of mail.

There was a letter from Jim, which made me think suddenly and oddly of broad and buttery cold spring water contrasted with cakes and sweet champagne!

And there was a note from Editor French, saying three more of my "messengers" had been printed, and that a little story I wrote weeks ago would come out in the next number of the "Messenger."

I am too happy to keep still. I dragged Athene out for a five-mile walk, and with part of my first story check we had luncheon at the swell hotel hotel. I am in one of my say-something mode, especially that I'm rested again, the sparkling cool, sweet ocean air. But it's mostly the triumphant chorus that my brain and my heart are singing. "We're succeeding, we're arriving; our work is going fine; journalism pay well!" I asked Athene.

"If you're thinking of Eric Sands," she answered, "I should say it does not. But divvily a bit care he. If you're thinking of yourself, I hope you can make it pay, and pay well."

Whether she meant it or not, Athene put her finger on the "weak link"—Eric's don't-care ness.

But when did a woman ever love man less because of one little weak link in his character?

(To be continued.)

$225,000 JEWEL LOST AT SEA. London, Eng.—Scotland Yard detectives are hoping that a solution may soon be provided of the mysterious disappearance of $225,000 worth of jewels which were lost at sea between Tilbury and Cobh, Ireland.

The jeweler was despatched by Kline Brothers of Moles House, Holborn Viaduct, to a member of the firm in Cobh. They included some unusually fine stones intended for the eastern markets. On the voyage they disappeared, and so far the mystery has baffled all attempts at elucidation.

to follow it to a conclusion when Athene came rustling in with a handful of mail.

There was a letter from Jim, which made me think suddenly and oddly of broad and buttery cold spring water contrasted with cakes and sweet champagne!

And there was a note from Editor French, saying three more of my "messengers" had been printed, and that a little story I wrote weeks ago would come out in the next number of the "Messenger."

I am too happy to keep still. I dragged Athene out for a five-mile walk, and with part of my first story check we had luncheon at the swell hotel hotel. I am in one of my say-something mode, especially that I'm rested again, the sparkling cool, sweet ocean air. But it's mostly the triumphant chorus that my brain and my heart are singing. "We're succeeding, we're arriving; our work is going fine; journalism pay well!" I asked Athene.

"If you're thinking of Eric Sands," she answered, "I should say it does not. But divvily a bit care he. If you're thinking of yourself, I hope you can make it pay, and pay well."

Whether she meant it or not, Athene put her finger on the "weak link"—Eric's don't-care ness.

But when did a woman ever love man less because of one little weak link in his character?

(To be continued.)

$225,000 JEWEL LOST AT SEA. London, Eng.—Scotland Yard detectives are hoping that a solution may soon be provided of the mysterious disappearance of $225,000 worth of jewels which were lost at sea between Tilbury and Cobh, Ireland.

The jeweler was despatched by Kline Brothers of Moles House, Holborn Viaduct, to a member of the firm in Cobh. They included some unusually fine stones intended for the eastern markets. On the voyage they disappeared, and so far the mystery has baffled all attempts at elucidation.

to follow it to a conclusion when Athene came rustling in with a handful of mail.

There was a letter from Jim, which made me think suddenly and oddly of broad and buttery cold spring water contrasted with cakes and sweet champagne!

And there was a note from Editor French, saying three more of my "messengers" had been printed, and that a little story I wrote weeks ago would come out in the next number of the "Messenger."

I am too happy to keep still. I dragged Athene out for a five-mile walk, and with part of my first story check we had luncheon at the swell hotel hotel. I am in one of my say-something mode, especially that I'm rested again, the sparkling cool, sweet ocean air. But it's mostly the triumphant chorus that my brain and my heart are singing. "We're succeeding, we're arriving; our work is going fine; journalism pay well!" I asked Athene.

"If you're thinking of Eric Sands," she answered, "I should say it does not. But divvily a bit care he. If you're thinking of yourself, I hope you can make it pay, and pay well."

Whether she meant it or not, Athene put her finger on the "weak link"—Eric's don't-care ness.

But when did a woman ever love man less because of one little weak link in his character?

(To be continued.)

$225,000 JEWEL LOST AT SEA. London, Eng.—Scotland Yard detectives are hoping that a solution may soon be provided of the mysterious disappearance of $225,000 worth of jewels which were lost at sea between Tilbury and Cobh, Ireland.

The jeweler was despatched by Kline Brothers of Moles House, Holborn Viaduct, to a member of the firm in Cobh. They included some unusually fine stones intended for the eastern markets. On the voyage they disappeared, and so far the mystery has baffled all attempts at elucidation.

to follow it to a conclusion when Athene came rustling in with a handful of mail.

There was a letter from Jim, which made me think suddenly and oddly of broad and buttery cold spring water contrasted with cakes and sweet champagne!

And there was a note from Editor French, saying three more of my "messengers" had been printed, and that a little story I wrote weeks ago would come out in the next number of the "Messenger."

I am too happy to keep still. I dragged Athene out for a five-mile walk, and with part of my first story check we had luncheon at the swell hotel hotel. I am in one of my say-something mode, especially that I'm rested again, the sparkling cool, sweet ocean air. But it's mostly the triumphant chorus that my brain and my heart are singing. "We're succeeding, we're arriving; our work is going fine; journalism pay well!" I asked Athene.

"If you're thinking of Eric Sands," she answered, "I should say it does not. But divvily a bit care he. If you're thinking of yourself, I hope you can make it pay, and pay well."

Whether she meant it or not, Athene put her finger on the "weak link"—Eric's don't-care ness.

But when did a woman ever love man less because of one little weak link in his character?

(To be continued.)

$225,000 JEWEL LOST AT SEA. London, Eng.—Scotland Yard detectives are hoping that a solution may soon be provided of the mysterious disappearance of $225,000 worth of jewels which were lost at sea between Tilbury and Cobh, Ireland.

The jeweler was despatched by Kline Brothers of Moles House, Holborn Viaduct, to a member of the firm in Cobh. They included some unusually fine stones intended for the eastern markets. On the voyage they disappeared, and so far the mystery has baffled all attempts at elucidation.

to follow it to a conclusion when Athene came rustling in with a handful of mail.

There was a letter from Jim, which made me think suddenly and oddly of broad and buttery cold spring water contrasted with cakes and sweet champagne!

And there was a note from Editor French, saying three more of my "messengers" had been printed, and that a little story I wrote weeks ago would come out in the next number of the "Messenger."

I am too happy to keep still. I dragged Athene out for a five-mile walk, and with part of my first story check we had luncheon at the swell hotel hotel. I am in one of my say-something mode, especially that I'm rested again, the sparkling cool, sweet ocean air. But it's mostly the triumphant chorus that my brain and my heart are singing. "We're succeeding, we're arriving; our work is going fine; journalism pay well!" I asked Athene.

"If you're thinking of Eric Sands," she answered, "I should say it does not. But divvily a bit care he. If you're thinking of yourself, I hope you can make it pay, and pay well."

Whether she meant it or not, Athene put her finger on the "weak link"—Eric's don't-care ness.

But when did a woman ever love man less because of one little weak link in his character?

(To be continued.)

...The... Devil's Own

A Romance of the Buckhawk War
BY RANDALL PARISH
Author of "Contraband," "She of the Irish Brigade," "When Wilderness Was King," etc.

Copyrighted A. C. McClurg &amp; Co.

As greatly as this brief, hastily whispered conversation had served to clear up certain puzzling matters in my mind, the total result of the information was thus imparted by Miss Clark only rendered the situation more complex and puzzling. Evidently the passengers had been crowded on the upper decks, but had been more securely hidden away where her presence on board would better escape detection. For what purpose? A sinister one, beyond all doubt—the expression of a vague fear in Kirby's heart that the man some accident of his identity might be discovered, and his plans disarranged. I comprehended the part he intended Eloise Beauchaine to play in his future, and realized that he cared more to gain possession of her, to get her into his power, than to obtain control of the ship. This knowledge, however, did not understand the predicament which this revelation put him into, and how desperately he would strive to retain the upper hand. If, in very truth, she was Judge Beauchaine's white daughter, and could gain communication with other vessels, bringing the proof of her identity there would be real men enough on board the Adventure to rally to her support. We were already sailing through free territory, and even now held on to his slaves rather through courtesy than law. Once it was whispered that one of these slaves, a white, the daughter of a wealthy planter, stolen by force, the game would be up.

But would she ever proclaim her right to freedom? If she was indeed Eloise Beauchaine—and even as to this I was not as yet wholly convinced—she had doubtless assumed to be René, doing so for a peculiar purpose—that object being to afford the other an opportunity for escape. Why, she had not so much as trusted me. From the very beginning she had encouraged me in the belief that she was a negro, never once arousing my greatest suspicion in my mind. Nothing, then, was convinced, short of death or disgrace, could ever compel her to confess the truth yet Kirby might suspect, might fear, but he had never learned what she was from her lips—that she was Eloise Beauchaine.

The conviction that this young woman, a white, educated, refined, the daughter of good blood—not seeing negroes, cursed with the black strain of an alien race, a nameless slave—brought to me a sudden joy in discovery. I made no attempt to conceal this. Beauchaine, like Beauchaine, the name repeated itself on my lips, as though it were a refrain. I knew instantly what it all meant—that some divine, mysterious hand had led from the very hour of my leaving Fort Armstrong, and would continue to lead until the will of God was done. It was not in the act of fate that such a sacrifice should succeed, such sacrifice as hers fail of its reward.

Nevertheless, in spite of this resolve, and the fresh courage which had been awakened within me by the faith that from now on I battled for the love of Eloise Beauchaine, immediate opportunity for service came. I could only wait patiently, and observe.

I was convinced that Kirby, whatever might be his ultimate purpose regarding the girl, had no present intention of doing her future injury. He contended, however, that he had a terrible possession, and would be well satisfied if he could only continue to hold her in strict seclusion. The thing he was guarding against now, and while they remained on board, was escape or discovery.

It was about the middle of the following afternoon when the Adventure poked her blunt nose into full view of the squat, hamlet of Yellow Banks. A half-hour later we lay snuggled up against the shore, holding amidst several other boats made fast to our hulls, gaunt planks stretching from forward deck to bank. The roustabouts began unloading cargo at once, a steady stream of men, black and white, stream, whatever load they could snatch up, moving on an endless run across the stiff plank, and up the low bank to the drier summit. It chanced to be my good fortune to escape this labor, having been detailed by Mapes to drag boxes, barrels, and barrels of flour, the hurrying porters could grasp them more readily. This brought me close to the forward stairs, down which the departing passengers trooped, threading their insecure way among the trotting laborers, in an effort to get ashore.

Reynolds' troops, all militia, and the "gendarmerie" of them mounted, were an extremely sorry-looking lot, not sturdy physically, of the pioneer type, but bearing little soldierly appearance, and utterly ignorant of discipline. The men had chosen officers from out their own ranks by popular election, and these exercised their authority very largely through physical prowess.

We had an excellent illustration of this soon after tying up at the landing. A tall, lank, ungainly officer, with a face so distinctly homely as to instantly attract my attention, led his company of men up to the river bank, and mounted them to transport the piles of commissary stores from where they had been promiscuously thrown to a drier spot farther back. The officer was a captain, to judge from certain stripes of red cloth sewed on the shoulders of his brown, jeans blouse. The men were far from prompt in obeying his commands, evidently having no taste for the job. One among them, apparently their ring-leader in incipient mutiny, an upstanding bully with the jaw of a prize fighter, took it upon himself to defy the officer, exclaiming profanely that he'd be damned if he ever intended to do ridge-work. The others laughed, joined in the revels, until the captain unceremoniously flung off his cap, thus divesting himself of every vestige of rank, and proceeded to enforce his authority. It was a battle royal, the soldiers crowding eagerly about, and yelling encouragement to especially fierce to one combatant, and then another. I kicked him in the ribs, Sam!"

"Now, Abe, you've got him—crack 'em cuss' neck."

"By golly! that's the way we do it in Salem."

"He's got you now, Jenkins. He's got you now, you boy. All he's got is what occurred. I could not see, but when the circle of wildly excited men finally broke apart, the big rebel was lying flat on his back in the yellow mud, and the irate officer was indicating every inclination to press him down out of sight.

"'Hav' you had 'nough, Sam Jenkins? You're questioned breathlessly. 'Sam, blarre, say so.'"

"All right, Abe—so've bested me this time."

"'Will yore tote them passels?'"

The discomfited Jenkins, one of whose eyes was closed, and full of clay, attempted a sickly grin.

The conqueror released his grip, and stood up, revealing his full height, and reaching out for the discarded blouse, quietly slipped it on. One of the Adventurer's passengers, an officer in uniform, gold braid and another tall, square, had halted on the stairs to watch the contest. Now he stepped forward to greet the victor, with smiling eyes and outstretched hand.

"Not so badly done, captain," he said cordially. "I am Lieut. Jefferson Davis of General Atcheson's staff, and may have a good word to say, regarding your efficiency some time."

The other wiped his clay-bespattered fingers on his dingy Jean pants, and gripped the offered hand.

"Thank you, sir," he answered good humoredly. "I'm Abe Lincoln of Illinois, and I ain't got but just one right now—that's the make them boys tote this stuff, an' Ireck on they're goin' ter do it."

With the exchange of another word or two they parted, and not until thirty years later did I learn what that chance meeting meant, in the days of the "Yellow Banks" at the side of the Indian village, with Abraham Lincoln of Illinois and Jefferson Davis of Mississippi stood in comradeship with clasped hands.

We had unabated perhaps a quarter of our supplies, when the officer suddenly appeared on the steps of the bank, and called the captain.

"Well, I'm afraid you aren't quite ready to leave from now," said the captain. "I know two little folks who, because we had to leave Naples early this morning, didn't study or read and listen."

"Is Captain Corcoran there? I am sending orders from headquarters. You are to discontinue unloading, captain, retain the remainder of the provisions on board and prepare at once to take on men."

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

TOWN LINE

Town Line, Dec. 11.—Mrs. A. C. Powers has closed her home on Riverside Drive and will spend the winter at the homes of her children. She is now living with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. Walter Nelson. Beloit Star and daughter, Elizabeth Star and daughter, Mrs. Roy Mead, and daughter, and Mrs. Ben Starr all of Newark, visited Friday at the home of Mrs. Julia Duggan.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kepplin turned Wednesday from Muscatine, Iowa. They were on their wedding trip and visited relatives in the Iowa city.

Fred Elford attended the Implement Dealers convention at Milwaukee this week.

A small number was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Knope, town of Newell, last Thursday.

Mrs. Will Carls and children who have been spending some time at the home of Mrs. Carls' mother, Mrs. A. C. Powers, have joined Mr. Carls at Rockford where they will make their home.

Fred Fairhurst trapped a red fox this week which had been raiding chicken yards for some time. It could easily be tracked through the tracks of his club foot. It is thought that it had been caught in a trap some time before. A trap set near where buried chickens had been found aided the capture.

Use it—give it to the kiddies. Don't suffer a minute longer than you have to.

The ingredients used in Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey are highly beneficial in promoting the relief cold-sufferers seek. Safe and economical.

At all druggists, 30c, 60c, $1.20.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey

for Coughs and Colds.

Give the Family PODOXAX

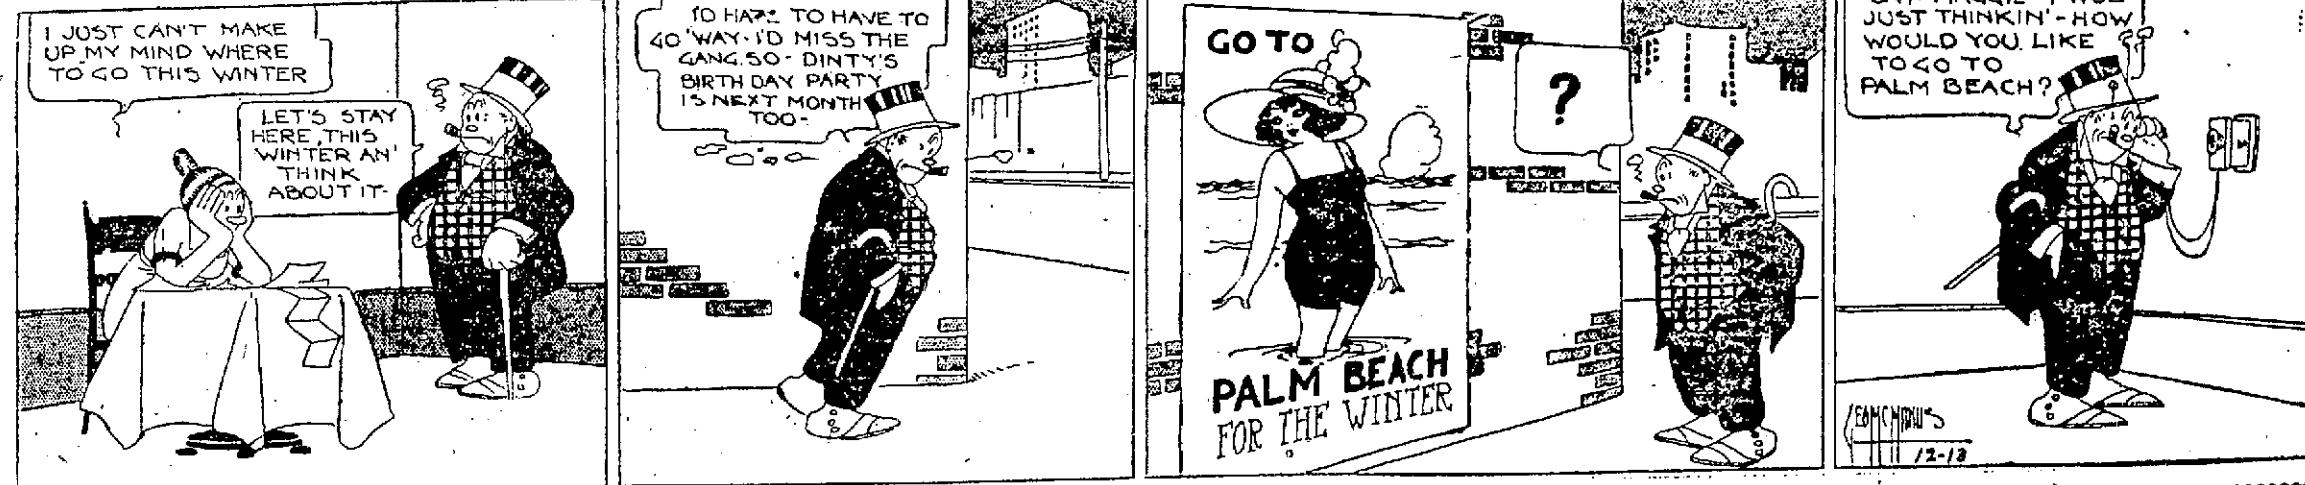

Corrects these tardy, horrid, ugly, mortifyingly uncomfortable feet. Don't let them get you down. Make the family healthy, pink-cheeked, free from constipation and its dangerous results. 60c. Druggists everywhere.

PODOXAX

LIVER AND TONIC.

Sold by People's Drug Co.

BRINGING UP FATHER

WHEN A MAN'S MARRIED

HANK and PETE THE KING PROVES TO BE REAL DEMOCRATIC, AT THAT!

THE WISHING PLANE

CLINTON NEWS

out from Indiana Saturday. He returned by train Monday.

The bazaar and supper at the M. E. church, Friday evening, netted the ladies a goodly sum.

The Teachers and Parents meeting was held Thursday afternoon at the high school.

Dr. C. H. Dodge has been entering his friend, Dr. Crow. Dr. Crow has just received his discharge from the 2nd.

RICHMOND

By Gazette Correspondent, Dec. 12.—The Twentieth Century Club will meet with Mrs. A. White instead of Mrs. D. G. Smith, next Thursday evening. The affair was postponed from last Monday evening on account of the illness of Mrs. Smith. The same program will be given.

Miss Dorothy Hull is attending school at Whitewater Normal.

W. P. McFarlane, Janesville, spent Saturday at his farm near here.

Several of the young people attended a dancing party at Millard Friday evening.

Clifford Smith, Milwaukee, has been spending several days with friends and relatives here.

Whaler Knillans shipped hogs to Milwaukee yesterday.

Sunday School party was given at the home of E. J. Harris last evening.

W. M. Nott and Aven Bye were Elkhorn visitors last week.

Mrs. Arthur Scharine entertained the Aid society of the German church on Thursday. There was a good attendance and a luncheon was served.

The bazaar and supper at the M. E. church, Friday evening, netted the ladies a goodly sum.

Mr. G. M. Holbrook is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Lerwill.

Miss Dorothy Hull is attending school at Whitewater Normal.

H. J. Kinnans and son, Elkhorn, have been here for several days.

Mr. Kinnans, a resident of this town for years, recently returned from Nebraska, where he sold his farm. He has purchased a home in Whitewater.

The body of Alonso Hulke was brought here from Whitewater, from the first Appleton boys of the Rainbow division to die in France, from Miss Margaret Hall of Boston, formerly with the American Red Cross. It was taken on Memorial day.

RECEIVES PICTURE OF GRAVE

Appleton—Mrs. Joseph Tuelber has received a picture of the grave of her son, William Hagemann, one of the first Appleton boys of the Rainbow division to die in France, from Miss Margaret Hall of Boston, formerly with the American Red Cross. It was taken on Memorial day.

PNEUMONIA

Call a physician. Immediately begin "emergency" treatment with—

HEADACHE

Bad for Health

Upsets Nerves

Go to Drug Store—Try

C

SIDE LIGHTS on the CIRCUS BUSINESS

By D. W. WATT
Former Manager Burr Robbins and Later Treasurer of Adam Forepaugh Circuses

As all of the shows are in their winter quarters, a few notes of their whereabouts and where they will spend the winter I hope may prove interesting reading. The Great Ringling and Barnum & Bailey shows are in their winter quarters at Bridgeport, Conn.

The Billboard gives the following account of the wedding of Miss Mae Wirth to a performer with the show by the name of Frank White:

Mary Wirth Wels.

New York, Nov. 28.—Mary Wirth, an celebrated sister of the famous Wirth family, was married to Frank Wirth White, circus man, at the Little Church Around the Corner Thanksgiving day. For years he performed as a clown and in other capacities under the same canvas as Miss Wirth.

Wirth has been with the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circuses for several years and was the star of the show for the past two years. John Barnes, Bob Ringling, Sam, Barnum, and Alvin Ringling, and his wife, Elizabeth, came to attend the wedding. "Poodles" Hancard was best man and his sister, Elizabeth, bridesmaid. John Ringling gave the bride away.

After the ceremony, which was attended by many of the hundred well-known circus and stage folks, the couple gave a luncheon in the College room of the Hotel Astor. In the center of the table was a large wedding cake, mounted on which was a pure white miniature horse made of hard frosting. Among those present were Ringlings, Mrs. Martin Wirth, Lew Graham, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Worrell.

New Quarters at Phoenix. Al. G. Barnes' circus on Nov. 15 at Phoenix, Ariz., closed one of the most important chapters in its history. The Chamber of Commerce of Phoenix persuaded Mr. Barnes to winter his big circus there, offering him the state fair grounds. All the fair buildings, ground and tracks are at the disposal of Mr. Barnes and his entire circus will be rebuilt at Phoenix instead of at Venice, Cal., where the show has wintered for several years.

Mr. Barnes will build a motion picture studio and start a company at once to make a motion picture feature. Mr. Barnes will produce a picture that is new and novel. All of the circus employees were kept at Phoenix for this occasion.

Mrs. Tom Thumb Dies. Middleboro, Mass., Nov. 29.—Giovanna Biscaccia, known to the general public as Mrs. Tom Thumb, and one of the best known illusions in the world, died at her home here Tuesday after a long illness. She was 77 years of age and had traveled around the world several times. Her husband, the manager of the late P. T. Barnum, died in 1883. She was the daughter of James S. and Hilda Bump, and of Revolutionary stock. Count Primo, her husband, survives.

Mrs. Thumb was born in Middleboro, Mass., in 1842. Until the age of 60 she developed normally, but when 10 years of age her body ceased to grow, though her mind developed in a perfectly normal manner. She made her first appearance when 17 years old. In 1883 she married Tom Thumb, who traveled throughout the world with him until his death in 1882. Two years later she married the Count Primo Magri, also a dwarf, who had traveled in her company. Mrs. Thumb at no time in her career weighed more than 22 pounds, and was 32 inches in height.

The body has been taken to Bridgeport, Conn., for burial beside that of Mrs. Thumb's first husband, Charles Butler, known to the world as "General Tom Thumb."

Sacks Sails for England. New York, Nov. 29.—J. L. Sacks

D'Annunzio to Be Pardoned For Fiume Capture, Belief

J. H. Scholler

OPTOMETRIST
207 W. Milwaukee St.
Bell phone, 316; R. C. phone 608 Blue.
Lenses Ground.

IDEAL GIFTS FOR MEN

Bath Robes Smoking Jackets

Select them early, while the stocks are large.

Bath Robes $5 to $20.

Smoking Jackets $7.50 to $12.00.

R. M. Bostwick & Son

MERCHANTS OF FINE CLOTHES.
Main Street at Number Sixteen South

HAVE THE OLD ONE CLEANED AND READY TO SLIP ON FOR CHRISTMAS!
NOT AT ALL A BAD IDEA, WHEN ONE THINKS OF IT.

Call the auto—have the OLD ONE FRESHENED UP FOR THE HOLIDAYS! We give BEAUTIFUL results at a TREMENDOUS saving to the POCKETBOOK!

Janesville Steam Dye Works

W. C. BROCKHAUS
109 East Milw. St.

PROFESSOR SEES DISASTER IN WORLD SUPPLY OF COTTON

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
Blackpool, Eng., (By mail)—Prof. John A. Todd, one of the British delegates to the World Cotton conference at New Orleans in October, has issued a warning to the textile industry that the world supply of cotton for the next 10 years may seriously threaten. He saw indications that the scarcity of cotton would increase as the world capacity to consume it returned to normal.

Professor Todd said the first step to be taken would be to have the grower of a reasonable price to cover the cost of production and to reward him adequately for growing improved cotton. He pointed out that the present system of marketing did not encourage the production of better cotton and insisted that the British government should call a conference of all countries to extend the cotton industry. He pleaded for vigorous economy in consumption. The American cotton crop, said the professor, was the limiting factor in the world's supply. This crop had developed an extreme undesirable susceptibility to boll weevils, which had increased by world inflation.

Before the war, said the speaker, a large part of the American growers were on a small margin of profit, and the price did not pay them reduced their acreage. This increased during the war and the acreage then lost had not since been recovered. American acreage was reduced in 1918, and, owing to bad weather, this year's crop was "a disastrous failure and a calamity." The result was that prices had been forced up to a high level.

Europe and Asia are without stocks of cotton goods, said the professor. The amount of cotton which the world's mills could spin and weave is now restricted by destruction of mills in the devastated regions of Europe and restriction of 16 hours of labor, but these conditions would not be permanent.

One thing which alarmed him was the enormous development of the use of motor cars in America with a consequent demand for 600,000 bales of cotton in this country.

The Royal Neighbors elected officers for the year at their last meeting as follows: oracle, Lizzie Williams; vice oracle, May Perrigo; chancellor, Annie Cohen; recorder, Hettie Merrill; receiver, Mary Weisendorf; marshal, Jessie Hallpress; J. A. Zonta, auditor, G. S. Hattie Tyler; manager, Ida Smith.

Attorney Blanchard transacted business at Janesville yesterday.

Mrs. D. Q. Wilson leaves for the east Sunday to spend the winter.

Several cars of coal have been received at this point and the situation has improved to such an extent that the closing ban has been modified.

Mrs. D. I. Wilson is in Stoughton today the guest of friends.

The funeral of Michael Conway, whose death occurred suddenly Friday evening, will be held from the Catholic church at 10 o'clock Monday morning. The family requests that flowers be omitted.

Miss Florence Kellor is expected to attend the funeral of her uncle, Michael Conway.

Miss Mary Conway of the Lancaster school faculty was called home because of the death of her father.

Catholic church at 10 o'clock Monday morning. The family requests that flowers be omitted.

Miss Florence Kellor is expected to attend the funeral of her uncle, Michael Conway.

Miss Mary Conway of the Lancaster school faculty was called home because of the death of her father.

drive, expect it to be finished within a week.

At the Home from France, Rev. John, pastor of All Saints church, Miss Unjohn, plans to return to Europe to take up publicity work for the junior Red Cross. Miss Unjohn was decorated by France.

Her work in France is visiting her brother, the Rev. Dean Unjohn, pastor of All Saints church. Miss Unjohn plans to return to Europe to take up publicity work for the junior Red Cross. Miss Unjohn was decorated by France.

MUSKRATS
WILL PAY $2.40 TO $2.65 AVERAGE FOR RATS CAUGHT IN SEASON THREE FROM KITS AND BADLY DAMAGED.
ABOVE PRICES ARE FOR IMMEDIATE SHIPMENTS ONLY.
WRITE FOR PRICE LIST.

HENRY STREIFF FUR CO.
218-222 W. Racine St.
MONROE, WIS.

Clip this Adv. and Enclose With Your Shipment.

Rich Gifts of Leather

Luggage and leather novelties make luxurious gifts for Christmas. Our variety enables you to choose something really distinctive at almost any expenditure from a modest one to a lavish amount.

Fine wardrobe trunks, bags, suit cases, Gladstones, handbags, music rolls, toilet cases, brief cases, shopping bags, bill folds, wallets and purses in the very newest and most desirable styles and finishes.

Janesville Hide & Leather Co.

222 W. Milw. St.
The Leather and Trunk Store

For INSURANCE of all kinds—See W. B. SULLIVAN

202 Jackman Bldg.
He will save you money.

Ask for rates.

New Method Shoe Shop

215 Hayes Block.
John Roach Frank Roach

9 SHOPPING DAYS TO CHRISTMAS

Our Factory is Light.

Our Work is Clean.

Our Work is not Difficult.

We Have Several Good Places for Machine Operators and Inspectors.

We Serve the Best of Coffee Free
At the Lunch Hour.

The H. W. Gossard Co.

$25,000.00 Fur Exhibit and Sale Tuesday, December 16th, Only

All Lovers of Fine Furs Will Welcome This Grand Opportunity.

A 10% Discount Will Be Given

A special representative of the "Famous Fur House of Albrecht," St. Paul, Minn., will be in charge. His suggestions and advise on your fur problems will be freely and gladly given. He can tell you just what furs will best become you—which furs will wear best—he can show the costly furs and their substitutes.

There is no more opportune time to buy furs than at this Big Exhibit and Sale.

Furs are advancing in price owing to the growing scarcity of fur bearing animals, and the ever increasing demand for furs by the public.

Don't Miss This Big Fur Exhibit—One Day Only—Tuesday, December 16th

The Advantage of Buying Your Furs at This Big Exhibit

We can save you money by not having to carry the stock—you can see the furs, you know what you are getting.

The Famous House of Albrecht tells the truth about the furs they sell. If you buy a mink you are certain it is a mink not a Russian prairie dog, dyed mink shade and labeled "Mink." When you buy an Albrecht Canadian lynx you are sure it is not a French rabbit. A skunk is a skunk and not a martin. A seal dyed muskrat is sold as such and not as "Hudson Bay Seal."

If you want honest treatment—honest values for your money and choice selection from coats, throws, scarfs, muffs, etc., come here on December 16th and see the BIG FUR EXHIBIT.

PRINGLE BROS. CO. Department Store, Edgerton, Wis.

JANESEVILLE GAZETTE
Classified Advertising

CLASSIFIED RATES

Insertions 5c per line

Inscriptions 10c per line

(Five words to a line)

Monthly Ads. 25c per copy

$1.00 per line per month.

NO AD TAKEN LESS THAN 25c OR

LESS THAN 2 LINES

Display Classifieds charged by the line. 11 lines to the inch.

Display Classifieds charged by the

line. 11 lines to the inch.

CONTRACT RATES furnished on application to the Gazette. Classified

CLOSING HOURS—12:30 P.M. Classified

Ads. to be in office one day in advance of publication.

OUT-OF-TOWN ADS. must be accompanied by a remittance in full payment of the amount of the ad-and remit in accordance with the above rates.

The Gazette reserves the right to classify all ads according to its own rules and regulations.

TELEPHONE ADS. NOT WANT ADS.

which are convenient to do so.

The bill will be mailed to you and as this is an accommodation service to Gazette, extra payment is made on request.

Persons whose names do not appear in either the City Directory or the phone book, and send cash with their advertisements.

BOTH PHONES 77.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

FORMS CLOSE ONE DAY IN ADVANCE OF PUBLICATION.

Several contributing reasons have made it necessary to place

classifieds on a day-in-advance basis, which means that all classified advertising should be in the Gazette Office one day in advance of publication.

We are sure everyone will appreciate the situation and cooperate to the best of their ability.

THE DAILY GAZETTE

Classified Department

SPECIAL NOTICES

ALWAYS

When you think of ? ? ? ? think of C. P. Boers.

RAZORS HONED—25c. Premo Bros.

ATTENTION! We are paying the highest market prices for HIDES

AND FURS; also all kinds of JUNK. S. W. Rosteln and Co.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE—Courteous treatment, reasonable prices,

Miller &amp; Co., Koshkonong, Wis.

GET YOUR FALL HAIR CLEANED

Now have the price of a new one.

Meyer Shaver, Cor. Main and Milwaukee Sts.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Beaver Muff. Left in J. M.

Bostwick's wash room Wednesday

noon. Reward. R. C. Phone Red 1935.

LOST—Gold watch with name Monday back between Samson

Tractor and Walker Sts. Finder leave at Gazette. Reward.

LOST—One wood chain Tuesday on way to Samson Co. Finder return to Gazette.

LOST—Young Female Hound. One

yellow ear, one white. Black spotted. Nottly. R. C. Phone 272 Black.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

DAY COOK WANTED at Reeder's

Cafe, W. Milwaukee St.

EXPERIENCED WAITRESS wanted

at Conley's Cafe on W. Milwaukee St.

GIRL—wanted for general housework. Call at Atlantic &amp; Pacific

Theatre.

HOUSEKEEPERS—Dishwashers,

chambermaids, private houses. Mrs.

E. McCarthy, both phones.

TELEPHONE OPERATORS

Positions available, lay-off.

Liberal pay while learning and frequent increases in salary. Unusual opportunities for advancement.

Work is clean, pleasant and interesting. Young women, 17 years or over.

WISCONSIN TELEPHONE CO.

WANTED—Competent woman to wash and iron 2 days each week.

G. F. Kibbitt, 420 Third St. Bell

Phone 67.

WANTED experienced stenographer, downtown office. Give experience and salary expected. Address 484

Gazette.

HELP, MALE AND FEMALE

WANTED

Young man or girl over 17 to feed Gordon Press. Chance to learn trade.

GIBSON BROTHERS

53 S. River St.

MALE HELP WANTED

CARPENTERS

WANTED AT ONCE

GOOD WAGES PAID

A. SUMMERS &amp; SONS.

WANTED AT ONCE

GOOD WAGES PAID

J. L. RUTZ &amp; CO.

MANUFACTURERS

WANTED

20 men for re-levating work. Milwaukee yard. Forty cents per hour. Apply Roadmaster's

Office, St. Paul Passenger Depot.

WANTED YOUNG MAN with book keeping experience and general knowledge of business for position in business office. Address P. O.

Box 217, City.

WANTED—Bricklayers, The

Raulf Co. New Parker Pen

building, Janesville.

WANTED—BRIGHT YOUNG MAN

18 to 21 years of age for office work. Good chance to learn business. Address P. O. Box 217, City.

WANTED

BRICK LAYERS

HAYES &amp; LANGDON

325 Hayes Block.

WANTED—SEVERAL YOUNG MEN

over 21 to work on income tax returning. Permanent positions in accounting, management of large manufacturers for those of renounced ability. State age and qualifications. Address 562 Gazette.

MALE HELP WANTED
(Continued.)

WANTED—Experienced dishwasher.

Man or woman. Good wages.

Savoy Cafe.

WANTED man for janitor work, either part or full time. Address

Box 485 care Gazette.

ROOMS FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Modern furnished room suitable for 2 gentlemen or gentlewoman. Call Bell phone Red 774.

FOR RENT—One furnished room suitable for sleeping or light housekeeping. Call Bell phone 844 after 5 p. m.

FOR RENT—Room suitable for 2

gentlemen. Call Bell phone Red 774.

FOR RENT—Room suitable for 2

gentlemen. With heat. Bell phone

826, 604 S. Academy.

FURNISHED HEATED ROOM—

suitable for two men. 315 Pleasant

St.

FURNISHED ROOM—for two men

and man and wife. Heated. 311 S.

Franklin St.

FURNISHED ROOM, suitable for

two gentlemen. For rent. Mrs. Ty-

rol, 213 Western Ave. Bell phone 2144.

FURNISHED ROOM—

suitable for two men. 315 Pleasant

St.

FURNISHED ROOM—for two men

and man and wife. Heated. 311 S.

Franklin St.

FURNISHED ROOM, suitable for

two gentlemen. For rent. Mrs. Ty-

rol, 213 Western Ave. Bell phone 2144.

FURNISHED ROOM—

suitable for two men. 315 Pleasant

St.

FURNISHED ROOM, suitable for

two gentlemen. For rent. Mrs. Ty-

rol, 213 Western Ave. Bell phone 2144.

FURNISHED ROOM—

suitable for two men. 315 Pleasant

St.

FURNISHED ROOM, suitable for

two gentlemen. For rent. Mrs. Ty-

rol, 213 Western Ave. Bell phone 2144.

FURNISHED ROOM—

suitable for two men. 315 Pleasant

St.

FURNISHED ROOM, suitable for

two gentlemen. For rent. Mrs. Ty-

rol, 213 Western Ave. Bell phone 2144.

